I. CONFERENCE ROLL AND RECORD

IMPORTANT NOTICE—In this Conference Roll and Record the following abbreviations are used: Pr. for Probationer; E. for Effective; Sn. for Supernumerary; Rt. for Retired; Cred. for Admitted on Credentials.

"Non-Annuity Years" include (1) all years "On Trial" in excess of two; (2) Years Withdrawn; (3) Years Located; (4) Years Supernumerary; (5) Years Retired. In the case of Retired Members, the Non-Annuity Years are those charged at the time of Retirement. To find the year of retirement, add to the year of "Admission on Trial" the sum of the Annuity and Non-Annuity Years.

"Annuity Years" are those for which annuity can be allowed by the Conference Board of Stewards. These include the years in the "Effective Relation", which is the number of years from the time of "Admission in Full" to the time of death or final retirement less any "Non-Annuity Years." To this, two of the years spent "On Trial" are added to make the "Annuity Years." In the case of persons who come to our Conference by transfer who were admitted in full in a Spring Conference, there may sometimes be allowed an extra "Annuity Year" for the extra half year. Such cases are indicated by a "over the year of admission."

Years "Preached in Other Churches" cannot be counted as "Annuity Years," although due consideration will be given this fact by the Board in the administering of the Necessitous Funds.

Every member of the Conference is urged to examine his record, and should there be any error, write the secretary.

IX. REPORTS

DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT

Bishop Brown and Brethren:

With heartfelt gratitude to Almighty God for His care, with sincere appreciation for all the courtesies that have been accorded to us by the pastors and laymen of the churches, and with something of a realization of the sacredness of the responsibility that has been placed upon us, We, your servants in the Church, present to you this composit report.

We welcome to our Conference as its presiding officer, Bishop Wallace E. Brown, he has proven himself to be a wise administrator and leader in the affairs of the Church, and on this his first official visit to us we would pledge him our loyal support and earnestly pray that his visit to us may prove an inspiration and blessing to all.

Evangelism

We would commend the effort that our pastors have made to promote the spiritual life of the Church. In most of our churches series of special meetings have been held, both of the winter and summer type, and these have born fruitage in many conversions and ingatherings into the churches. There have been reported over 5,500 conversions and reclamations, and over 2,600 have been received by preparatory membership, and 860 are reported as transferring their membership from one church to another. While this last figure cannot be taken as indicating that amount of increase in church membership, it does, however, reveal a loyalty to the church on the part of those who are changing their residence from one locality to another. We feel that too much stress cannot be laid upon this type of pastoral work—The gathering into the church of those who move from one locality to another, thus saving to the church those who otherwise would have been reported as inactive members.

Building and Improvements

Substantial improvements have been made on many of our church and parsonage properties. Buckhannon District has spent $16,332 in beautifying and improving their properties, Charleston has spent over $7,500, Huntington $12,000, Morgantown approximately $20,000, and the Wheeling District $18,000, or a total of $73,832 has been spent throughout the conference.

Paid on Indebtedness

During this present year there has been an effort made to reduce indebtedness. The outstanding reduction of the year has been that of the Church at Beckley, where a reduction has been made of $20,000 and the debt so refinanced as to make it no longer a question of how to retain the Church property. Other churches of the Charleston District have reduced in lesser amounts, the sum of reduction for the District totaling better than $36,099, Buckhannon District has reduced its indebtedness by $14,125, Huntington District by $20,264, Morgantown District $10,193 and Wheeling District by $6,780. In many cases the reduction meant the complete wiping out of debts, while in other cases there is the feeling that a complete reduction can be made this coming year.

Pastoral Support

While the churches have been improving their properties and paying their debts they have not been wholly unmindful of the needs of their pastors, and some have found it convenient to increase the pastoral support for this coming year. The amount of increase for the coming year will amount to about $7,000. We are sorry that with the increased cost of living and the high cost of travel in serving many of our country churches, that a way cannot be found to increase the support of the country preacher. In many cases the cost of gas and the upkeep of the car consumes almost half of the entire salary. In the olden days the pastor was given hay and oats to keep the horse. It is our opinion that in this modern day of automobiles that every church should provide an item in its budget that would cover the upkeep, gas and oil necessary for the pastoral supervision of the charge. We are in hopes that this coming year will see an improvement in this direction.

Fellowship Campaign

The Million Unit Fellowship Campaign was conducted in all of our charges, and while the goal that was set for the Conference was not reached, an earnest effort was made to attain it and the results have been gratifying. Our giving for this year will by far exceed the giving of last year. The Districts are reporting an excess of $ above that given last year.

Wesleyan College

The program for the Semi-Centennial Celebration of Wesleyan College is nearing completion. Dr. Fleming is on the ground and has already taken charge of the financial campaign. If this endeavor to make Wesleyan College the outstanding educational institution of the state is to be realized, then every pastor and every layman should do his and her utmost to see that the proposed plan is carried out. Bishop's Day observed this year by the College, proved to be a successful and inspiring day. The plans that are being laid for its observance next year on October 12th point to an even more successful day. Every pastor should plan that not only he, but, also laymen from his Church will be present on this day. We are proud of the past history of Wesleyan College, let us make its future history even more glorious.

Religious Education

The work of Dr. and Mrs. Rapping in the Religious Education of the Conference has been very effective. They have rendered invaluable aid in District Conferences and in Sub-District Group Conferences by conducting classes in leadership training and in assisting to promote a better trained leadership for the young people of our Conference.

Epworth League Work

As a Conference we should rejoice in the work that has been done among the young people of our Epworth Leagues. District gatherings and the Summer Institute have increased the scope of the possible service in which our young people may become engaged. Every encouragement should be given to the leaders, that our young people may acquaint themselves with plans that will enable them to become efficient leaders in the Church of tomorrow.

Summer School of Theology

The attention of our Local Supply preachers is called to Discipline and its requirement for attendance upon the Summer School of Theology. We notice that a number of the men did not attend the School this summer. This requirement is not optional, but, by the ruling of the Board of Bishops, it is obligatory. We must insist, then, that those who wish to serve the Church in the capacity of Accepted Supply Pastors must meet the requirement of the Church for such service.

Women's Organizations

A complete report of the activities of our Churches could not be made without some reference to the work that has been done by the women of the Church. Who can estimate the value of our Women's Missionary Organizations in the success of our Million Unit Fellowship Campaign? Through the years of the depression they have kept up the interest of the Church in the Missionary fields; they studied their problems, they prayed for their success, and in this campaign they were able to contribute an enthusiasm in the movement that never could have been aroused in the short period of time that was allotted to the educational campaign. If there had been an equal interest manifest by an equal number of the men of the Church, we would have ample resources to finance a world program for the Church.

Financially many of our Churches would be greatly weakened and embarrassed were it not for the Ladies' Aid Society. It has come to the rescue of many a struggling Church, and many of our stronger Churches have found it a very convenient crutch to augment a poorly worked or inefficient financial system. During the past year they have paid Church debts and assisted in the pastoral support and the running expense of many a Church that otherwise would not have been able to meet its expense.

A Conference Program

It is the belief of your Superintendents that, together, we should work out a program of Conference wide interest, and while the program that is proposed for the Conference may have features that will call for readjustment according to the needs of the District and Churches, yet this program will form the basis upon which we will place our emphasis during the coming year and men moving from one district to another will feel that we are unifying the program of our Conference activities. This program, then, becomes a goal whose end we will strive to attain during this coming year.

Closing

As we look back over the Conference year just closed, we may see where mistakes have been made, and where we might have done better than we did, but the book of our Conference year is closed, and a new one is being opened to us. We cannot change the year that is past. What we have done, what we have said, this is history, but the new Conference year will come to us as a new book, upon whose pages no one has yet written, what it shall be, and what shall be accomplished in it yet remains for us to determine. Let us enter upon it with the high resolve of making it the greatest year in our experience.

Respectfully submitted,

Prepared and read by
D. Ralph Dunn.

(Condensed by the Publication Committee)

CONFERENCE CLAIMANTS' PERMANENT TRUST FUND

To the West Virginia Annual Conference:

In submitting this my second annual report of the work of the Secretary-Treasurer of the Permanent Trust Fund Association, I wish to express my sincere thanks to the District Superintendents for their help in arranging exchange of pastors in their respective Districts for the presentation of this fund, and also to the pastors, who have been most helpful in cooperating with the Secretary. In going over the Conference presenting the cause of the retired minister, widow of minister and orphan, I have not been refused the use of any pulpit, but a welcome has awaited me everywhere.

As to the offerings. No large amounts have been received from any source, but a large number of small sums have been given, which gives a clear indication that many of our people are interested in the welfare of those who have given the best of their lives, many of them all of life, to the building of the Kingdom. We were able during the year to collect the amount of three hundred dollars on an old note, which note we received by way of inheritance. This was for the amount still owing. On another note we have received judgment through the court of Upshur county, which note will eventually be paid. There are still some outstanding notes due the Permanent Fund.

As to our investments. At present we have invested the sum of $252,000. This is exclusive of the property we received from the Jamison estate in Fairmont. The Jamison property consists of three houses in Fairmont, twelve building lots in the same city, eight hundred dollars in stock in the Marion County Building & Loan Association and a note which will, when paid, net the Permanent Fund about four hundred dollars. From many thousands of dollars among these investments we are still receiving no dividends, but each year for the past three years, many of the holdings have resumed dividend payments. In some cases we have made exchanges of investments in the reorganization of corporations. Since January 15 of the present year we have collected in back interest the sum of $2757.00, this sum from investments supposed to have become defunct some years since. Other investments, that had suspended payment of dividends during the depression years, are showing unmistakable evidence of resuming payment.

As to wills. As indicated in an above paragraph, we are the beneficiaries of a will made by Mrs. Dora Jamison, of Fairmont. Others are making wills in favor of the Permanent Fund. Last year I received word of four persons having so remembered the retired minister. This Conference year I have been notified of four other persons who have remembered the Permanent Fund in their wills. These are probably modest estates, but when they form a sum total they will make substantial additions to this Fund.

We must continue to carry on, keeping the Permanent Fund ever before our people, urging on the part of pastors the remembering of the retired minister in the making of wills, estate conveyances, all with a determination to increase the support of the retired minister and widow of minister, until an adequate support is provided those who have been promised such support by a great church.

Responsibility of pastors. Pro-rating must be adhered to as an irrevocable statute of Methodism. One per cent of pastor's cash salary, ordered by our Annual Conference. This should be paid promptly.

Your Secretary turns over to the Conference Board of Stewards the sum of $7,518.00.

Respectfully submitted,

S. B. HART,

Secretary-Treasurer.

BOARD OF EDUCATIONWEST VIRGINIA WESLEYAN COLLEGE

From the Administration of the College, the Board of Trustees, and the report of the Conference Visitors' Committee, we glean the following facts:

First: that the financial affairs of the college have improved, due to the increased enrollment during the past three years, and to the increased income from endowment; second: that the academic work is becoming more satisfactory, due to the development of courses and increased facilities in library and laboratories; third: that further progress is impossible until indebtedness is liquidated and certain needed improvements are made.

The Semi-Centennial Campaign is the essential instrument for the accomplishment of the objective implied in the third fact mentioned. Towards this the College has been looking for five years, and broad plans have been laid. Former President Fleming has been invited to lead in the campaign and he is now here ready and anxious to move forward.

We submit the following recommendations:

RESOLUTIONS CONCERNING ANNUAL CONFERENCE
BENEVOLENCE APPORTIONMENTS FOR WEST VIRGINIA WESLEYAN COLLEGE

Whereas: the present plan of making apportionments for West Virginia Wesleyan College, upon the basis of fifty cents (50c) per member per year, has not proved entirely satisfactory.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED: First, that the present plan of making annual Conference benevolence apportionments for West Virginia Wesleyan College be abrogated;

Second, that we establish the sum of $20,000 as the annual need of West Virginia Wesleyan College to be raised by the Churches of the Conference exclusive of all gifts designatd from World Service Funds.

Third, that we make an effort to raise only a part of the total needs of the College the first year, setting the goal for the Conference year of 1937-38 at $11,184 for the entire Annual Conference, exclusive of all gifts that may be designated from World Service Funds.

Fourth, that the Annual Conference Apportionments for West Virginia Wesleyan College from the several districts of the West Virginia Conference be as follows:

Buckhannon District	$2,002
Charleston District	1,953
Huntington District	1,953
Morgantown District	2,125
Wheeling District	3,151

Fifth, that the askings from the Districts as above set out be apportioned to the several charges in each district by the District Superintendent upon an equitable basis similar to that upon which the World Service askings are made and written into the program of each charge and church as a part of the Annual Conference benevolences in each case.

Sixth, that the Administration of the College is hereby authorized to call upon the charges within the Conference to designate out of World Service monies to West Virginia Wesleyan College amounts large enough so that the total designations will amount to a sum equal to that allowed to the College by the Board of Education; such gifts, however, not to be credited as a part of the Annual Conference apportionments.

RECOMMENDATIONS:—

1. That 12 o'clock noon following the day of Adjournment of Conference be the closing hour for the receipt of the material for the Conference Journal.
2. That the Committee edit and condense the material.
3. That the following reports be omitted from the printed journal:—Resolutions; Parsonage; Episcopal Fund; Bible Cause; Periodicals; Sabbath Observance; District Superintendents' Accounts; District Conference Journal; Home Missions and Church Extension; Record of Evangelist's Work; Women's Home Missionary Society; and Women's Foreign Missionary Society.

4. The Lay Conference shall be requested to raise each year, such amount as the Committee may advise for the printing cost of the Minutes of the Lay Conference.
5. That each Minister in active service (Members of Conference, Members on Trial, Supply Pastors) be apportioned an amount equal to $\frac{1}{4}$ of 1 per cent of his cash salary received during the year, adding enough to make the amount even dollars. The Committee shall make out an apportionment sheet for each District and furnish same to the Dist. Supt. not later than January 1st, 1938; the Supt. to notify each pastor on his district of his apportionment. Pastors may raise this apportionment as an Annual Conference Benevolence, sell the Journals and apply the proceeds to the Minute Fund of the Charge for the next year.

EXCEPTIONS—Supernumerary Ministers may purchase copies of the Journal at the published price of 50 cents per copy. Retired Ministers may purchase copies of the Journal at 25 cents per copy.

Preachers in detached service shall be apportioned $2.00 each per year.

6. The Committee shall publish as many copies of the Journal as funds in hand will allow and apportion the same to the Ministers who pay the apportionments as above.

TWELFTH ANNUAL REPORT OF THE CONFERENCE COMMITTEE ON METHODIST HISTORY

Continuing the trend of last year's report toward the semi-centennial celebration of West Virginia Wesleyan College in 1940, we give the following sketch of "Methodist Education in West Virginia" from the gifted pen of Vice-President W. B. Fleming, who, as President of the College, 1915-22, effectively participated in the development described:

METHODIST EDUCATION IN WEST VIRGINIA

Fifty years ago (1887) the West Virginia Annual Conference met at Parkersburg. The session was of great importance in the history of Methodist Education within the State. At this Conference the Board of Trustees, appointed for the purpose of organizing a Methodist school, reported that they had purchased as a site what is now the campus of West Virginia Wesleyan College.

This event marked the beginning of the realization of cherished dreams. Methodism's plans and her connection with educational institutions in West Virginia long ante-date that conference. As early as 1840 Asbury Academy at Parkersburg, then in the Ohio Conference, was being operated by the Methodist Church.

On the site of the present Tower School at Clarksburg, near to the first Methodist Episcopal Church, originally stood Randolph Academy founded in 1790. It now bears the name of the first principal, a graduate of Oxford.

This school was founded and for many years was operated under public control. However, about the year 1842 it came under the control of the Methodist Church and Rev. Gordon Battelle became its principal. With changes in the leadership from time to time, Methodist control continued until the Civil War. During the war the building was used for military purposes.

Beginning before the Civil War the Methodists repeatedly commended in official reports the Morgantown Female Seminary, and for a time the Conference had under its "patronage and control" a male and female seminary at Fairmont. Thus it may be said that Methodism was influential in laying foundations for two of our state schools.

After the War the Government put the building of the academy at Clarksburg in repair, and the Board of Trustees appointed by the Conference operated the school "in conjunction with the Township Commissions of that District." Rev. J. Connor, a Methodist, was the principal. The Conference Minutes of 1868 record,—“The Trustees of this Institution, finding it impossible to sustain it—have temporarily merged it into the free schools of the borough of Clarksburg.” The arrangement was originally made for two years; but it proved to be irrevocable.

In 1877, just sixty years ago, the town of Buckhannon made its first effort toward the promoting of a Methodist school. The Conference records states,—“This town offers to the Conference a subscription amounting to $6,590.00, and also a most beautiful site for the seminary.” However, there was delay, for hopes for the recovery of control of the Academy at Clarksburg were not fully renounced by the Conference until its session in 1885.

The renunciation united the Conference in its purpose to establish its own school, and this sentiment lead the trustees who had been appointed, to purchase the campus at Buckhannon in July, 1887. The first building was completed in 1890. In that year the school was opened under the presidency of Rev. B. W. Hutchinson. The Conference minutes of 1890 record;—“The seminary starts off with a fine class of students representing fifteen counties.”

A major educational movement of America, the organization of the public high school, was getting under way in the period of the Seminary's beginning. The progress of this movement in West Virginia from the turn of the century is amazing.

The seminary served on the present high school level of education. As the public high schools multiplied it became apparent that the institution's largest field of service was on the college level. The first college class was graduated in 1905; the last seminary class in 1908. West Virginia Wesleyan College was growing up.

The Seminary of 1890 has become the College of today. The one building of 1890 has given way to a splendid group of modern college buildings. The small faculty has as its successor the large teaching staff of a high grade modern college. The sacrifices of the fathers have proved to be "good seed of the Kingdom."

A program leading up to the Semi-Centennial Celebration in 1940 has been authorized by the Conference and is now in progress under the supervision of Bishop Adna W. Leonard and the direction of President Roy McCuskey. It is to eventuate in the securing of a library building, the freeing of the College from debt and the increasing of the permanent endowment. Thus to the youth of the years to come will be brought "the advantages of a liberal education in a positive Christian atmosphere."

The financial goal of the Semi-Centennial program is the securing of One Million Dollars in recognition of the fifty golden years.

Respectfully submitted,

CONFERENCE COMMITTEE ON METHODIST HISTORY.

WM. BURDETTE MATHEWS,

Chairman.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON MINIMUM MINISTERIAL SUPPORT AND SUSTENTATION

Resolved: That we concur in principle in the proposed plan for minimum cash Ministerial support as outlined on pages 63 and 64 in the 1936 Conference Minutes because there are inequalities in our system of Ministerial Compensation which ought to be corrected.

Therefore, we recommend to the Conference that our District Superintendents and pastors of our churches jointly be instructed to bring before said churches in their First Quarterly Conferences this general plan above referred to—that the reasons for, and the justice of, such support be carefully explained to the Quarterly Conferences of our churches, which under the resolution, will be required to bear the major portion of this support; that full opportunity for discussion be given to each quarterly conference to express themselves concerning the proposal and that a report of each Quarterly Conference action be made to the Commission as early as practicable.

After a careful study of the entire situation, the Commission can then bring definite recommendations to our next Annual Conference.

President.

MINUTES OF CONFERENCE DEACONESS BOARD

Clarksburg, W. Va., September 24, 1937.

The West Virginia Conference Deaconess Board met for their regular meeting at the First M. E. Church, Clarksburg, September 24, at 1:15 o'clock P. M.

The president Dr. H. C. Howard was present and presided. The meeting opened with prayer by Rev. R. O. Phillips. The following members were present:—Dr. H. C. Howard; Rev. R. O. Phillips; Rev. P. Z. Musgrave; Rev. Gregory Bleakley; Nellie Stevens; Mae Strickler; Evelyn Bloomer and Rena M. Crawford. Mary J. Lockhart, Superintendent of the Holloway Deaconess Home; Mrs. Paul Flanagan, minister's wife of Salem, W. Va.; Rebecca Modellmog and Margaret Moe, Missionary Workers, at Engle Settlement were introduced to the Conference Board.

Motion was made by Rev. Musgrave, that the same officers be elected for another year; the motion passed.

Dr. A. J. Jackson was elected for second vice-president to succeed Dr. Bisgrove who was transferred to the Genesee Conference.

Rev. W. A. DeBar was nominated as an Annual Conference member. Evelyn Bloomer was elected a member of the committee on Promotion and Deaconess Work. Luella Didget was elected a member of the committee on Recruiting and Licensing.

The standing of each Deaconess was approved. The secretary reported that Lucile Stutler, a Christian worker, is working at Scott's Run Settlement.

Evelyn Bloomer has been transferred from the Erie Conference to the West Virginia Conference. Miss Alice McCurry, Miss Grace E. Yoakam and Miss LaDonna Bogardus have been transferred from the West Virginia Conference. Miss Berniece O. Schoolcraft and Miss Nellie Stevens are to be transferred to the North East Ohio Conference upon request. Miss Edna M. Stephan is to be transferred from the North East Ohio Conference to the West Virginia Conference. Miss Luella Didget was granted Deaconess License and was consecrated Sunday, September 26, at Clarksburg, by Bishop Wallace E. Brown.

Beatrice Greene was granted a leave of absence to attend school at Hartford, Conn. Arbella Newton and Bertha McNeal were given honorable discharge from Deaconess work as they both had been married during the year.

On motion by Rev. Phillips, the secretary was requested to write a note of sympathy to Dr. DeBolt at Huntington because of his recent bereavement in the passing of Mrs. DeBolt; and also a note to Mrs. R. B. Nay, who had been confined in the Ohio Valley Hospital at Wheeling for many weeks.

The Conference Deaconess Board recommended to Bishop Brown the appointment of the Deaconesses as read by the secretary.

RENA M. CRAWFORD,

Secretary, Conference Deaconess Board.

Tributes

WILLIAM ANDERSON

William Anderson was born at Kirkheaton in Northumberland-shire, England, April 29, 1864. Departed this life March 22, 1937. Age 72 years. He was the third child of John and Margaret Anderson. On his mother's side his ancestry went back to Bishop Ridley, the English martyr.

When about fourteen years of age he came under the ministry of Gipsy Smith, Methodism's greatest evangelist in England, and at once surrendered his heart and life to Christ and the Church. Shortly after his conversion, he and two lady evangelists held a series of meetings which resulted in over two hundred conversions. Feeling called to devote his whole life to the winning of souls, he entered East Keswick College in Yorkshire, England. Here, his Sundays were spent in preaching the Gospel and leading souls to Christ.

In the summer of 1889 he bade farewell to the land of his birth and came to these United States, making Parkersburg, West Virginia, his headquarters. The months before Annual Conference were spent in studying the Course for Admission in Conference. He passed with a high grade—was admitted and sent to Williamstown, then Cairo and Sistersville, New Martinsville, Wheeling, (Chapline St.) Clarksburg, Mannington, Point Pleasant, Spencer, Richwood, with one term as District Superintendent on the Buckhannon District.

On June 15, 1892, he married Miss Mary Ellen Cotton of Parkersburg. To this union were born two sons and one daughter, Francis Ridley of McKeesport, Thomas William, Pittsburgh, Pa., Mary Margaret, deceased.

Rev. Anderson believed in a well equipped ministry. Not satisfied with the knowledge gained in the schools of England he took a special course in Drew Theological Seminary and later carried a Correspondence Course for his Ph. D.

Dr. Anderson had only one object in view in taking all this training—to win souls out of the ways of sin into the Kingdom of Christ. Brother Anderson stood high as a preacher and his services were eagerly sought. As a pastor he ministered to those who needed him most.

LORENZO DOW BRYAN

Lorenzo Dow Bryan was born in Ohio, March 4, 1854, and died at Kenova, West Virginia, February 28, 1937. He was converted in early manhood and united with our Church. Some years later he was licensed as a local preacher and still later entered the Conference. He gave fifteen years of effective service but at the end of that time was compelled to retire from the effective ministry because of a throat infection. This throat infection became more serious and led to almost total deafness.

During the years of his active ministry he was most effective in promoting revivals of religion, and was diligent in instructing converts in the rules of the Church, thus substantially adding to the membership of the Church wherever he served.

He was twice married, the first time to Mary Bartram of Fort Gay. To this union one son was born. Mrs. Bryan and the son preceded him in death many years ago. He afterward married Mary Marrit, who survives him.

Funeral services were held at our Church in Kenova. They were conducted by our Pastor there, C. C. Yates, together with W. C. Strohmeier, Smith B. Hart and W. C. Stewart. Burial was at Fort Gay.

EDWIN NORMAN JARRETT

Edwin Norman Jarrett was born at Ebbw Vale, Monmouthshire, England, October 22, 1860, the son of Charles Jarrett and Elizabeth (Norman) Jarrett. He began preaching when a young man of eighteen. More than fifty years ago he came to the United States and located in Homestead, Pennsylvania. He attended Princeton University and Boston University School of Theology, graduating from the latter in 1892. He served various charges in New Hampshire, then went to Stevensville, Michigan. From there he came to the West Virginia Conference where he served Harrisville, West Liberty and Wheeling (Edgewood). In 1909 he went to Beaver County, Pennsylvania and located in New Brighton. Later he moved to Rochester, Pennsylvania. He was prominent there as teacher of the Men's Bible Class, and often supplied pulpits.

Surviving are his widow, Henrietta Jarrett; four sons, Norman of Massillon, Ohio, Leon E., and Charles C., of Rochester, Penna.; and Arthur E., of Monoca, Penna.; and two sisters, Mrs. Mary J. Griffiths of Ebbw Vale, Monmouthshire, England, and Mrs. William Cordey of New Brighton, Penna.

Funeral services were held in the church at Rochester, Penna., conducted by J. C. Matteson, pastor, and C. W. Oresak, former pastor, together with H. Reed Shepfer of the Grace Lutheran Church. The last represented the Rochester Ministerial Association. Burial was in the Grove Cemetery of New Brighton, Penna.

REUBEN LUTHER MANESS

Reuben Luther Maness was born at Southern Pines, South Carolina, July 9, 1880, the son of Rev. and Mrs. Jonah S. Maness. He died at Morgantown, April 16, 1937. On December 24, 1900 he married Neulah Sowers who survives together with all the children. The children are Paul R. Maness, our pastor at Corinth; Mrs. D. M. Harold and Asa Maness, both of Charleston; Mrs. Howard Sigler of Harrisville; and Troy L. Maness and Dorothy Maness at home. He is survived also by Rev. Troy L. Maness, Belpre, Ohio (formerly a minister of this Conference); Mrs. Allie McCraw and Mrs. Sidda Strange of Greensboro, North Carolina; Mrs. Katie Maxwell and Mrs. Arthur Guthrie of High Point, North Carolina, and Mrs. M. W. Castle, Charleston, West Virginia.

Brother Maness was converted and united with the Church at the age of ten. He renewed this covenant in his early teen age and united by transfer with First Church at Chester, Penn. He directed his educational preparation for evangelism and the pastorate. The young convert of the Fair Promise Church, Bear Creek, Chatham, North Carolina, had for his objective in life the work of the Christian ministry. He studied also at the Cincinnati Bible School and at Asbury College. For a few years he with his brother and sister organized an evangelistic party and were signally successful in this field. Later his Conference called him to mission work in the mountains of North Carolina and he served under the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension, his support being the contribution of a large New York Church. His appointments in the Blue Ridge—Atlantic Conference included, Miller's Creek, Trap Hill, Laurel Creek on top of the Blue Ridge Mountains, Statesville, and Moorehead City.

In 1913 he transferred to the West Virginia Conference and advanced by faithful study from Deacon's to Elder's Orders. He served Cottageville, Smithfield, South Parkersburg (Lauckport), Chelyan, Fairview, Spencer, West Liberty, Ronceverte, Sharon, Harrisville, Friendsville, and Masontown. Nearly five thousand converts are a part of the fruit of his labor.

Funeral services were held in the Masontown Church under the leadership of the District Superintendent, S. Charles Jones, together with James P. Hutchinson, Foster L. Jones, B. W. Folsom, and at Harrisville with French Boone, M. R. Eastlack, Fred S. Bishop, W. W. Bragg, Harry Blackburn and Judge S. O. Prunty helping in the Service. Burial was in the Harrisville Cemetery.

JOHN CLINTON SLEETH

John Clinton Sleeth was born in Lewis County but at an early age went with his parents to Roane County where they lived near Reedy. He died January 22, 1937, on the Blacksville Charge in the midst of a fruitful pastorage. Although he had not been well for several weeks the end came suddenly.

He was converted under the ministry of Rev. P. D. Fisher and by him licensed to preach. He studied at Marshall College and in the Conference Course. He was admitted on trial into this Conference in 1914 and was ordained Deacon and Elder. He served the following charges: Henderson, Lavalette, Clifton-Mason, Marshall, Hundred-Littleton, Masontown, Blacksville.

Brother Sleeth was twice married, his first wife having died while they were serving the Marshall Circuit. The children are, Ercil, Inez, John, Idres, Iris and James; Ronald William, Elvin Kaye, Arlyn White, and one deceased. The second wife, Jean Wilma (White) Sleeth, survives. Brother Sleeth himself wrote many poems that are of a high order. Some are printed in the daily and religious press and some are printed in a volume of poetry.

Goodbye, 'till morning come again!
We part, if we must, with pain,
But night is short, and hope is sweet;
Faith fills our hearts, and wings our feet;
And so we sing the old refrain,
Goodbye, 'till morning come again!

Goodbye, 'till morning come again!
The thought of death brings weight of pain.
But could we know how short the night
That falls, and hides them from our sight,
Our hearts would sing the old refrain,
Goodbye, 'till morning come again.

Funeral services were held at the Blacksville Church for Brother Sleeth. They were conducted by the District Superintendent, S. Charles Jones, together with Glen Dale Watts, Clyde H. Backus, Harvey Scott Chapman, O. E. Elkins and T. E. Shea. Forty other of his brother ministers were present at the funeral and formed an escort of honor. Interment was in the family plot in Mt. Olivet Cemetery near Wheeling.

MARY ELLEN (FLOWERS) COOK

Mary Ellen Flowers was born at New Matamoras, Ohio, the daughter of Andy Sheets Flowers and Martha (Butler) Flowers.

She died at Charleston, West Virginia, October 30, 1936, after a long illness. Mary Ellen Flowers married John Bruce Cook and served many pastorates with him. Mrs. Cook was sensitive to the finer values of life and was especially appreciative of poetry.

I know not what the future hath
Of marvel or surprise,
Assured alone that life and death
God's mercy underlies.

I know not where His islands lift
Their fronded palms in air;
I only know I cannot drift
Beyond his love and care.

Funeral services were conducted at Charleston by Robert Bag-nell and E. J. Heller. Mrs. Cook leaves her husband, six sisters and one brother to mourn their loss.

EDNA LENORE (WORDEN) KUPFER

Edna Lenore Worden was born at Waymouth, Ohio, September 15, 1892, and died at a hospital in Charleston, West Virginia, June 22, 1937, following a long illness and an operation. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Worden of Medina, Ohio. There she was educated in the elementary school and high school and joined the Congregational Church where she was active in the Christian Endeavor. She taught school for seven years.

On December 24, 1918, she married Charles Robert Kupfer. The following year she taught in the Academy of Asbury College while her husband completed the theological course. Mrs. Kupfer received her local preacher's license in Virginia in 1922 and worked side by side with her husband as they served in Virginia, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Maryland and West Virginia. While at Madison, N. J., Mrs. Kupfer took several courses at Drew University. She was naturally studious, a lover of poetry and song, powerful in prayer, unshrinking in faith and wholly consecrated to God. She often said, "Come, let us pray about it."

Funeral services were conducted at the Pleasant Hill Church, Sherrard, W. Va., by Albert R. Bennett, T. E. Shea, T. H. Taylor and A. C. Riffe. The body was buried in the Kupfer Cemetery.

GERTRUDE A. DeBOLT

Mrs. Gertrude A. DeBolt, died of a lingering illness at her home, 2963 Winters Road, Huntington, West Virginia, September 20, 1937. She had been ill for the past six years, and had been practically an invalid for the past three years.

Born March 6, 1878, the daughter of James K. P. and Malinda Adamas. She lived for some years at a residence located where the Cabell County Court House now stands, on Fourth Avenue, Huntington. Practically her entire life was spent in her native city. She was educated in the city's public schools and attended Marshall College for three years.

She married Harry D. Douthit at the age of twenty-one years. Following his death in 1910, she was married to the Rev. Philip Y. DeBolt, October 17, 1917. She took an active part in the affairs of the church, and was a great help and inspiration to her husband in his leadership of the several congregations which they served together.

In early girlhood she was converted and joined the Guyandotte Methodist Episcopal Church, and always remained a true and faithful member. Upon their return to Huntington, she placed her membership in the dear old church in which she was reared, and retained such relation until called to the Church Triumphant.

Surviving, in addition to her husband, are her daughter, Mrs. C. E. Mowry, St. Louis, Oklahoma, a brother Ed. K. Adams, Philadelphia, Pa., a half-brother, W. F. Adams, Huntington, two grand children and eleven nieces and nephews. A most beautiful life lived on earth is closed to bloom eternally in the heavenly world.

XIII. OFFICIAL JOURNAL OF THE WEST VIRGINIA LAY CONFERENCE

MORNING SESSION

The West Virginia Lay Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church was called to order in the St. Paul's M. E. Church, South, in Clarksburg, West Virginia, at 10 a. m., Thursday, September 23, 1937, by the President, Chas. H. Hartley. Prayer was offered by Harvey W. Harmer.

The President then explained that the program committee had arranged the program so as to have discussed the various subjects suggested by the delegates in reply to a circular letter sent out by him. The conference then divided into six groups, viz:

GROUP A—

Discussion Topic, "The Church"—Leader, Geo. W. Bowers.

GROUP B—

Discussion Topic, "Church Finances"—Leader, L. C. Shingleton.

GROUP C—

Discussion Topic, "Christian Education"—Leader, Mrs. A. H. Rapping.

GROUP D—

Discussion Topic, "Social Problems"—Leader, Homer W. Wiseman.

GROUP E—

Discussion Topic, "The Church and Youth"—Leader, E. V. Bowers.

GROUP F—

Discussion Topic, "The Minister"—Leader, Clay B. Whetsell.
The groups adjourned at 12 o'clock noon.

AFTERNOON SESSION

The President called the conference to order at 2 p. m. Thomas W. Haught offered prayer.

Each discussion group leader was asked to give a report of the morning group meetings. Several interesting reports were made, all of which were in turn discussed by the conference, and some resolutions presented by groups were adopted. (A resume of the group reports, together with the resolutions adopted, has been issued in mimeograph form and may be obtained from the president.)

The business session of the conference was held at 4 p. m.

The roll was called by districts.

Upon the adoption of a motion that each district select one member of a nominating committee, the following committee was selected:

Charleston District.....	J. A. Greenlee
Buckhannon District.....	O. L. Hudkins
Huntington District.....	E. V. Bowers
Morgantown District.....	Harry Friend
Wheeling District.....	Geo. W. Bowers

Dr. S. B. Hart presented some statements relative to retired ministers and C. O. Law presented some matters relating to Wesleyan College.

The conference adopted a memorial of Samuel V. Woods, once a delegate to the General Conference, which memorial was prepared by Chas. W. Evans.

A collection was taken to defray expenses—postage, printing, etc.—of the Lay Conference. This collection amounted to $39.23.

The nominating committee recommended that the following officers be elected:

President.....	Chas. H. Hartley, Morgantown District
Vice-President.....	Irvin Dugan, Huntington District
Secretary-Treasurer.....	Roy Reger, Charleston District

On motion the report of the committee was adopted and nominees were duly elected.

On motion the nominating committee was given authority to fill vacancies on committees having lay representation.

Upon motion made by J. A. Greenlee the officers of the Lay Conference were instructed to offer the assistance of laymen to the conference treasurer and conference statistician.

Upon motion the conference created a program committee consisting of the officers of the conference and two others, representing the districts not represented by officers, same to be appointed by the president. This committee was instructed to arrange a program for the day preceding the United Sessions in 1938. The president named L. C. Shingleton of the Buckhannon District and R. C. Snedecker of the Wheeling District.

No further business appearing, the Lay Conference on motion adjourned at 4:40 p. m.

(See Journal of Annual Conference for proceedings of United Sessions.)

TRY THE HAMMOND ORGAN

IN YOUR CHURCH BEFORE YOU EVEN CONSIDER ANY OTHER ORGAN

Two facts give ample testimony that the Hammond is a truly fine musical instrument. One is that noted musicians and composers were among the first to buy the Hammond Organs. The other—that the Hammond, in less than two years, has become the largest-selling organ in the world. In this period, we believe, more churches have bought it than all other makes of organs combined.

Always In Perfect Tune and Pitch

Temperature and humidity do not affect the pitch or tone quality of the Hammond. It simply cannot get out of tune or pitch. This is a tremendous advantage in churches, where wide temperature variations between week days and Sundays affect other organs seriously.

I. CONFERENCE ROLL AND RECORD

IMPORTANT NOTICE—In this Conference Roll and Record the following abbreviations are used: Pr. for Probationer; E. for Effective; Sn. for Supernumerary; Rt. for Retired; Cred. for Admitted on Credentials.

"Non-Annuity Years" include (1) all years "On Trial" in excess of two; (2) Years Withdrawn; (3) Years Located; (4) Years Supernumerary; (5) Years Retired. In the case of Retired Members, the Non-Annuity Years are those charged at the time of Retirement. To find the year of retirement, add to the year of "Admission on Trial" the sum of the Annuity and Non-Annuity Years.

"Annuity Years" are those for which annuity can be allowed by the Conference Board of Stewards. These include the years in the "Effective Relation", which is the number of years from the time of "Admission in Full" to the time of death or final retirement less any "Non-Annuity Years." To this, two of the years spent "On Trial" are added to make the "Annuity Years." In the case of persons who come to our Conference by transfer who were admitted in full in a Spring Conference, there may sometimes be allowed an extra "Annuity Year" for the extra half year. Such cases are indicated by a "over the year of admission."

Years "Preached in Other Churches" cannot be counted as "Annuity Years," although due consideration will be given this fact by the Board in the administering of the Necessitous Funds.

Every member of the Conference is urged to examine his record, and should there be any error, write the secretary.

IX. REPORTS

DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT

Bishop Leonard and members of the United Session:

The District Superintendents present the following report.

Honored Dead

From the earliest times one of the questions asked in our Annual Conference is "Who have Died?"

Since our last Annual Conference death has called and the following members of our parsonages have answered the call to the eternal home of the faithful: Harvey Scott Chapman, Phillip Yeager DeBolt, and Sheridan Watson Bell. Those of the retired relation: Hyre Dee Clark, Louis Anderson McNemar, Archibald Moore, Samuel J. Cotton, and J. M. Grose. Ministers' wives: Jennie Lambert Kepler, Mary M. Compton, Mrs. Alonzo T. Morriston, Mrs. James H. Daugherty, Anna Virginia Shackelford, and Marian Maxwell Meredith.

Bishop

In the very beginning we want to thank our beloved Bishop for the interest he has shown and the help he has given to our conference this year. No bishop in Methodism has more numerous or more difficult tasks to perform for the Church at large than he, yet no detail of Area or Conference responsibilities has been overlooked. We extend to you, therefore, Bishop Leonard, our deepest gratitude for your valuable contributions made to our conference this year: at Bishop's Day in Buckhannon; for the Preaching Mission in Huntington; at Parkersburg, when you were the moving spirit in the greatest gathering of Methodist men in the history of the conference; and at Mountain Lake Park, where your messages and council were appreciated by the faculty and students alike. May health and strength continue to attend you in your strenuous program.

Buildings and Improvements

There has been an unusual amount of painting and improving of church buildings and parsonages this year. Space will not permit even to enumerate the list, but for the conference the aggregate spent for building and improvements will be near $75,000.00. The amount paid on old indebtedness will be nearly $40,000.00. This is a decrease as compared with last year, but in the face of the economic situation it represents a splendid response to the physical needs of the church and in many instances real sacrifice.

World Service

In spite of the economic situation World Service offerings, May 31, were in advance of last year at the same time. From each of the five districts present indications are that there will be little if any retrenchment this year. As long as our people are willing, voluntarily to support the cause of Christ in this whole-hearted way under the trying conditions of the past year, there is hope for our church and civilization. It is believed that lack of knowledge of Christian stewardship is greatly handicapping our church and depriving our people of a rich experience. We cannot too strongly urge our pastors to give special emphasis to teaching stewardship and tithing. We believe that if adequate attention were given to this matter that a new pace would be set both for World Service giving and local church financing.

West Virginia Wesleyan College

We still hold that our college, West Virginia Wesleyan, is the most important single institution in our conference. There should be no question about its right to the highest loyalties of every Methodist in our Conference. With our united Methodism it should enter upon a new period of growth and usefulness. Dare we not dream dreams and see visions of the days that are ahead for our college.

We urge our pastors and laymen, alike, to clear the way for an undivided effort in the campaign now under way. Nothing but absolute loyalty to our only educational institution is worthy of West Virginia Methodism. We will hear more in detail about what is being done at the college and what is expected of us when the college cause is presented in this session.

Other Christian Educational Activities

Wesley Foundation is closing another successful year in this church and community. Having no physical plant of its own and being so far removed from many Methodist communities it is at a disadvantage of receiving an adequate evaluation. Yet untold good is being done among students from our Methodist families from every part of the state. We recommend careful consideration be given the work by the Conference Board of Education.

Conference Director of Religious Education

Early in the conference year Dr. A. H. Rapking, who was acting as Conference Director of Religious Education, was appointed by the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension as superintendent of Town and Rural Work. For a time Mrs. Rapking carried on but since early summer we have been without anyone for this important work. We believe there is vital need for a vigorous work in Christian Education, and now that unification is virtually a fact, we believe this conference should, even this year, work out a plan of cooperation between the three Methodist Churches which will increase the efficiency of the work in the field. We call upon every school to observe Rally Day this year and take an offering which goes to the carrying on of this work in the conference.

Picnics

At the suggestion of Bishop Leonard, as part of the Area Program, picnics were held throughout the conference in June and July with an attendance of several thousands.

Church Schools and Epworth Leagues

Last year one of the most disturbing notes in reports for the year was a decline of nearly 5,000 in our Church Schools. Thank God this decline has been stopped in every district and a decided increase has been registered.

Work among youth has been encouraging with attendance at institutes amounting to more than 1,500. The Conference Annual Epworth League Institute at Buckhannon was one of the very best. The faculty was unusually strong. The attendance was good, being over 300.

There is every reason to believe that our youth are desirous of a vital religious experience. Pastors and leaders are requested to give special attention in building the youth into the program of the church and not allow them to become detached or semi-independent groups.

Lay Activities

Undoubtedly the most outstanding and far-reaching movement in the conference, of recent years, is the Lay Activities Movement, originated by our Bishop. Where the churches have caught the vision, and have engaged the men under this program it has resulted in revitalizing the church activities. It is one movement in which every man of the church can be put to some useful task. We again pledge our loyal support and request our ministers and laymen to make this a major part of the program in every local church.

We would be derelict in our duties if we failed to mention the noble work of the women, both in the missionary activities and in the Ladies' Aid Societies. Not only have they kept many churches going financially but they are more and more emphasizing the spiritual and social side of their work. Any society that has made over five thousand calls on sick or prospective members, and this has been done by individual churches, has rendered a great service to the church.

Methodist Homes

The home has been recognized as the basic unit of our civilization and the foundation stone of the church and society. No social order can rise higher than the ideals of its homes. Likewise no church can progress farther unless high Christian standards are taught and practiced in the home.

It is with regret that we find a lack of personal piety in the homes of many Methodists. We believe no greater blessing could come to our church homes than the revival of domestic piety throughout the conference. We call attention to and heartily endorse the statement in the episcopal address delivered at the last General Conference: "The greatest thing we can do for the 'rising generation' is to equip it with praying fathers and mothers who turn their homes into sanctuaries, their hearts into altars, and their loves into burning appeals to their children to remain true to the Parenthood from which every parenthood in heaven and in earth is named. The fathers and mothers of Methodism should revive into an evangelical meaning the commission long since given to Jewish parents: 'The things which I command thee this day shall be in thine hearts: And thou shalt teach them diligently unto thy children, and shalt talk of them when thou sittest in thine house, and when thou walkest by the way, and when thou liest down, and when thou risest up'."

Spiritual State

From every district there comes the report of renewed interest in the spiritual life of the church. The consensus of the District Superintendents is that this interest is not of a cheap or spurious nature, but comes from a deep sense of dependence upon God. "The evangelistic accomplishments of the districts have been noticeable." "Many gracious revivals have come." "Churches, communities, villages, and towns have literally been transformed." These are some of the statements made by the Superintendents in referring to the spiritual state of the districts. Figures were not available that would give the exact number, but indications are that there will be an increase of accessions over last year.

Aldersgate was commemorated generally throughout the conference with gracious results. It is hoped this was not merely a celebration but a rededication of ourselves to the high goals of John Wesley and the early Methodists to spread Scriptural holiness over these lands.

Peace and Temperance

Not since 1914 have war clouds hung more threateningly over our civilization than during the past year. We are thankful to Almighty God that in our own country the dove of peace has a place of refuge. As we look at the rest of the world with its war and threats of war, and we realize how the world is brought together by modern invention and economic systems, we view with alarm the present world situation with respect to peace. We wish we were wise enough or knew some one wise enough to tell us what to do. But we do believe we should be on our guard against insidious propaganda, and that there is no more important thing to do than to be much in prayer. Remember we are brethren of Him whose birth was announced and whose victory will be sung by the Chorus choir of Peace.

What can we say of the liquor traffic? It is hard for Methodists to keep within bounds of pious expressions when one views the beverage liquor traffic that is carried on in West Virginia. Today road houses and beer joints have permeated every section of our state. They are more numerous than our churches and schools combined. Many young and old alike are becoming so accustomed to them that they are being taken for granted, not aware of the moral and physical dangers that lurk in every one of them. Again and again we have seen these indescribable places of iniquity tear down the characters of our young men and women in a few short months, sometimes in a single night, what it has taken devoted mothers and fathers years to build up.

We therefore reaffirm and declare to the world, what the Methodist Episcopal Church has always intended, to keep up relentless warfare against the beverage liquor traffic. The fact that it has become legalized and often entrenched behind political strongholds will not cause us to desert the slogan of our fathers: "Total abstinence for the individual; prohibition for the state," for the sake of our children, our homes, our church, and our country. We cannot too strongly urge our members and especially our officials to steer clear of this destructive business.

Unification

We come at last to a new situation in our conference: namely, Unification. What a word! How fraught with meaning. It marks an epoch in our Methodism. It signifies the closing of a long breach, and the drawing together of brethren too long divided, into a common household of fellowship those of a common faith and heritage.

There are two distinct phases of Unification. The one physical and material, the other spiritual and invisible. The one dealing with buildings and economy, the other with spirit and ideals. If these two cannot be accomplished at once and together the former will have to wait.

The common exception should be that organic union will be followed by a spiritual union resulting in enlargement and enrichment of religious experience. On the other hand there are grave dangers in the background which must be faced by preacher and laymen. Already we have encountered some of these difficulties. Within the bounds of our state we have the following conferences and parts of conferences: the West Virginia Conference and parts of Pittsburgh and Baltimore Conferences of the Methodist Episcopal Church; parts of the Western Virginia Halstine and Baltimore Conferences of the Methodist Episcopal Church South; and the West Virginia Conference and part of Baltimore Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church. There is a combined membership of 183,000 with 500 preachers and more than 1600 churches and congregations.

One great danger is in going too fast so that the enthusiasm to unite congregations may kill the spirit of unity and common purpose. A church is not a church until it has achieved a corporate soul, an espritdecorps which unites its people in the bond of a common purpose. It will not be enough to decrease congregations to save overhead expense. With such possibility of friction by overlapping and competition there should be kept before us the spiritual significance of Unification. Patience, tolerance, time, and above all sympathetic understanding should be our watchword as we face the new days ahead.

Conclusion

In conclusion we acknowledge with deepest gratitude the goodness of God who has attended us at every step of the way through the year; the many kindnesses and courtesies shown us by pastors and people as we have traveled throughout this great area on business for the Master.

Now unto Him who is able to keep you from falling and to present you faultless before the presence of His glory with exceeding joy. To the only wise God our Saviour, be glory and majesty, dominion and power, both now and forever.

Respectfully submitted,

Prepared and read by
M. C. Miles.

REPORT OF THE PERMANENT TRUST FUND

The work of the Permanent Trust Fund has gone steadily forward during the past year. Contributions have been equal to that of former years of the present Treasurer, while the income from permanent investments have been in advance of the past nine years. The investments made in other years are secure with but few exceptions, while our real estate and other property holdings are now making returns equal to any investments that could be made.

During the year we were able to collect in rental of houses an amount equal to or slightly beyond had a like investment been made in Government or State of West Virginia bonds, while at the same time we are reminded that all such property holdings came to us by inheritance. Two wills made in the interest of the Permanent Trust Fund are now in process of being probated.

From interest and dividends we were able to turn over to the Conference Board of Stewards for distribution to Conference Claimants the sum of $6,912.

Respectfully submitted,

S. B. HART,
Secretary-Treasurer.

BOARD OF EDUCATIONWEST VIRGINIA WESLEYAN COLLEGE

The work of West Virginia Wesleyan College is proceeding in a very encouraging way. The faculty is rendering effective and highly commendable service. The student body is composed of ambitious Christian young people, most of whom come from our Methodist homes.

Evidence that the College is winning a place of larger recognition in the educational world is seen in the fact that last year eleven states were represented in the student body. The College's beautiful location and its attractive educational program are becoming known in ever widening areas of America.

The new college year is opening this week. There is a gratifying increase in the number of students enrolled; but it is too early to know the exact number.

The quality of a college's work is indicated by the record of its alumni. The achievements of West Virginia Wesleyan's alumni bring new laurels to the college every year; their record of useful living and of worthy leadership is an endless series of occasions for pride and gratification.

Further advance in the College's work will follow the increasing of its resources.

THE SEMI-CENTENNIAL CAMPAIGN

The objectives of the Semi-Centennial Campaign include the payment of all indebtedness, the erecting of a new library building, the renovation of the college buildings and the making of a necessary addition to the endowment. These objectives necessitate the goal of One Million Dollars.

The Semi-Centennial Campaign is moving according to schedule. The Trustees and a number of others have made their subscriptions.

A canvass of the Alumni will be made by counties during the fall and winter. This canvass will be under the leadership of the County Chairmen. Upshur County, the home of the College, will begin the canvass before the close of this month. Other counties will follow in order planned.

The big Campaign to enlist the help of all the members of the churches and the other friends of the College will begin next March (1939.) There will be a preliminary week at Buckhannon for the training of special workers. During this week the canvass in Buckhannon will be made.

On March 26 at First Church, Clarksburg, the Campaign will be publicly launched for the Buckhannon District. Bishop Leonard will be the speaker. The College Choir will sing. This great meeting will be followed by the canvass in Clarksburg and throughout Buckhannon District.

On April 16 at First Church, Fairmont, there will be a similar launching day for the Campaign in Morgantown District. Three weeks later is to be the launching day for the Wheeling District. May 21 will be the launching day for Huntington District, with meetings in First Church Parkersburg, and First Church Huntington. A complete canvass of the District will follow.

June 11 will be the launching day for the Charleston District. After the completion of the city canvass two weeks are allotted for the finishing of the work on the other charges of that district.

Thus the intensive Campaign is scheduled to continue from March 26 to the end of June. This program should make it possible to enlist the interest of every West Virginia Methodist in this great undertaking for Christ and for our young people.

Efforts to secure the cooperation of philanthropic foundations and of men of wealth beyond the bounds of the Conference have been initiated and will be continued.

THE NEW PLAN OF CONFERENCE APPORTIONMENTS FOR COLLEGE MAINTENANCE

We cannot over-emphasize the importance of meeting in full the Conference apportionment for the College. On the total for the whole conference, up to this session, the churches have paid $2,-778.40. You can certainly see the difficulty the College has in meeting current obligations without the full financial support from the churches. The next two years will be especially significant while the Semi-Centennial Campaign is in progress, because the current budget must be maintained. If the attention of the administration has to be diverted from the campaign to raise funds for current expense, the campaign itself will suffer.

The following are nominated for Board of Trustees:

For three years:—

Rev. Frank L. Shaffer, Clarksburg, W. Va.

For four years:—

Mr. W. T. Williamson, Charleston, W. Va.

Rev. W. Sproule Boyd, D.D., Morgantown, W. Va.

Mr. Ronald F. Moist, Clarksburg, W. Va.

Rev. J. E. Scott, D.D., Wheeling, W. Va.

Dr. O. L. Hudkins, Weston, W. Va.

Mr. A. G. Shannon, Buckhannon, W. Va.
 Rev. W. S. Patterson, Oakland, Maryland.
 Rev. D. Ralph Dunn, Charleston, W. Va.
 Mr. James M. Hawley, Wheeling, W. Va.
 Mr. Harold G. Cutright, Chicago, Ill.

The following were nominated for Conference Visitors' Committee:

Rev. Vernon C. Cutright.
 Thomas R. Horner.

WESLEY FOUNDATION

In view of the fact that there is a greater need for a vigorous Christian Program for University students than ever before, and in view of the bewildering array of hostile forces which are making their impact upon the intellectual and spiritual life of our young people, and in view of the added fact that the Methodist Episcopal student constituency in West Virginia University reaches the impressive total of 930 students as reported by the Registrar, we earnestly recommend that there be no reduction of the support which the churches of the West Virginia Conference have heretofore provided for our Wesley Foundation, and that there be no reduction in the budget for this year.

We recommend that the following rate of Conference Apportionment for the Wesley Foundation be continued this year:

Charges paying a cash salary of $ 500 or less.....	$ 2.00
Charges paying a cash salary of $ 501 to $1000.....	$ 3.00
Charges paying a cash salary of $1001 to $1500.....	$ 6.00
Charges paying a cash salary of $1501 to $2000.....	$ 8.00
Charges paying a cash salary of $2001 to $3000.....	$12.00
Charges paying a cash salary of more than $3000.....	$15.00

We respectfully request that the present director, Mr. James P. Hutchinson, be reappointed to this important post.

We nominate the following Board of Directors for the Wesley Foundation:

FOR ONE YEAR—George R. Farmer, Bernard Gibbs, William T. Hughes, Winfield S. Patterson.

FOR TWO YEARS—P. E. Chamberlain, B. W. Folsom, L. C. Shingleton, George W. Grow.

FOR THREE YEARS—John Slovins, A. S. Wolfe, Paul Wilson.

FOR FOUR YEARS—Frank B. Trotter, D. C. Pickens, W. Sproul-Boyd, Joseph C. Hoffman.

MOUNTAIN LAKE PARK SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY SCHOOL OF MINISTERIAL TRAINING

West Virginia Conference School of Ministerial Training

The Pittsburgh Area Summer School of Ministerial Training is one of the vital institutions of our Area. In this school our Accepted Supply Pastors and many of our Conference Men receive their training. This year 47 of our young men received instruction in the school and 19 of our Conference men listened to the lectures.

We appreciate the support given by the Conference in making this training possible. This year a substantial part of the expense was paid for each student. We ask that the same support be continued for the coming year. The amount assigned to each charge is as follows:

Charges paying $2500 or more cash salary.....	$6.00
Charges paying $2000 and up to $2500.....	$5.00
Charges paying $1500 and up to $2000.....	$4.00
Charges paying $1200 and up to $1500.....	$3.00
Charges paying $1000 and up to $1200.....	$2.00
Charges paying less than $1000.....	$1.00

Payments to be made to A. F. Shomo, Treasurer, Nitro, W. Va.

The Faculty and Students of the School wish to express their appreciation to Bishop Leonard for his three challenging lectures and to Dr. Homer E. Wark for the four lectures so masterfully presented by him during the second week of the school.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE OF SIX

(As Amended)

To the Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, the Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South and the Annual Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church:
Dear Co-Laborers:

Methodist Union is legally an accomplished fact. The Uniting Conference of April, 1939, will complete the glorious work so well begun. Conference lines will be fixed, areas of labor assigned, Boards will be united and we shall begin our service in a New Methodism. In the meantime there are many areas in which we can co-operate. Not the least of which is in the field of Christian Education.

Growing out of an informal discussion at West Virginia Wesleyan College in June, in which the presidents of the three Boards of Education, representing the three Methodisms in West Virginia, participated, along with Bishop Peele of the Southern Church and other interested persons, a Committee of Six was appointed to study the entire Educational Program of the three churches in West Virginia, with a view of cooperation and consolidation.

That committee has met on several occasions and has given careful and prayerful consideration to every phase of the work. Budgets, personnel and activities have been discussed freely and sincerely. After what we believe to be careful consideration and judgement we submit the following:

1. That the work of Christian Education of the three Methodist Churches in West Virginia be consolidated and combined as far as possible now.

2. That the personnel consist of an Executive Secretary, who shall have general charge of the program, an Assistant Executive Secretary, who shall have charge of Young People's or Children's Work, and an office secretary.

3. That there shall be an Executive Committee, to work with Executive Secretary in giving direction to the program, to be composed as follows: the chairman of each of the Boards of Christian Education and one other person from each denomination elected by the annual conference on nomination of the Board. The Board wish to nominate Dr. Minor C. Miles the Executive Secretary, and the Assistant Executive Secretary.

4. That the budget for the coming year be as follows:

ESTIMATED EXPENDITURES

Salary Executive Secretary	$2,500.00
Travel Expense	500.00
House Rent	540.00
Office Rent	240.00
Office Secretary Salary	720.00
Office Expense (Including Bulletin)	1,000.00
Field Worker	1,200.00
Pastors School	400.00
Miscellaneous	400.00
Total Minimum Amount needed	$7,230.00

ESTIMATED INCOME

From Methodist Episcopal Church, South (Estimated)	$4,780.00
From Methodist Episcopal Church (Estimated)	2,170.00
From Methodist Protestant Church (Estimated)	300.00
Total	$7,230.00

THIRTEENTH ANNUAL REPORT OF THE CONFERENCE COMMITTEE ON METHODIST HISTORY

THE CLARKSBURG SESQUICENTENNIAL

The model brochure of community history of West Virginia Methodism has been published by First Church, Clarksburg, and was edited and compiled by Senator Harvey W. Harmer, historian. It was published as part of the Sesquicentennial celebration of Clarksburg Methodism held May 15, 1938.

The preservation of history is accomplished in its promulgation. This Clarksburg publication covers not only the Mother Church but its numerous children churches. In view of unification as an accomplished fact very properly there was included the history of the Southern branch of our Methodism in that center.

Attractive from a typographical standpoint, the booklet likewise is comprehensive in content. The illustrations for the most part are excellent. It comprises nearly 100 pages of interesting historical data, finely printed on good paper. In short, it is well done because it was assembled under the painstaking oversight of a real historian. That of other communities should be published but not until local historians are found who can do the work accurately and well in their respective churches.

Some of the features of the Clarksburg publication: Foreword, settlement of Clarksburg and Harrison County, introduction of Methodism in America and in the trans-Allegheny region, organization of the Methodist Episcopal Church in 1784, Redstone Circuit the same year, Clarksburg Circuit in 1787, excerpts from Bishop Asbury's journal concerning Clarksburg, the log church of 1788, the brick church of 1822, Randolph Academy and Northwestern Virginia Academy, excerpts from church records of 100 years ago showing contrast with modern methods, Goff Centenary Chapel of 1866, organs and choirs, details in history of the Mother Church, full financial transactions in connection with the present edifice of 1909, description thereof, current official directory, with history of the various church organizations, alphabetical list of 1700 members and a compiled roster of pastors and presiding elders, the years they served, and messages by Resident Bishop Leonard and by the present pastor, Homer E. Wark.

Let other churches arouse interest in their work by publishing their history. Andrews Church, Grafton, and First Church, Fairmont, already have done so.

ANNIVERSARY LEGACIES FOR WEST VIRGINIA WESLEYAN

An effective feature, if pushed, of the semi-centennial celebration of West Virginia Wesleyan College is the work of the Committee on Wills and Estates of which Hon. Lawrence R. Lynch, Clarksburg, is chairman. Since the celebration was proposed four years ago, several bequests have been received, including those by Mrs. L. J. E. Bennett, Miss Buena Ayres, and Miss Sadie Chapman, amounting to over twelve thousand dollars. Two large prospective legacies by D. J. Gibson and C. A. West will be realized in time.

There is no way of knowing how many friends of Wesleyan have included the college in their wills within the last four years but if a systematic effort is made in the next two, the results in 1940 may be surprisingly great. It may prove to be the basis of a productive income that will make history in many years to come. Cooperate with Chairman Lynch in this behalf.

Respectfully submitted,
CONFERENCE COMMITTEE ON METHODIST HISTORY

WM. BURDETTE MATHEWS, Chairman.

COMMITTEE ON PUBLICATION OF CONFERENCE JOURNAL
RECOMMENDATIONS

1. That 12 o'clock noon following the day of adjournment of Conference be the closing hour for the receipt of the material for the Conference Journal.

2. That the Committee edit and condense the material.

3. That the following reports be omitted from the printed journal:—Episcopal Fund; Bible Cause; Periodicals; Sabbath Observance; District Conference Journals; Record of Evangelists' Work; Women's Home Missionary Society; and Women's Foreign Missionary Society.

4. The Lay Conference be requested to raise each year such amount as the Committee may advise for the printing cost of the Minutes of the Lay Conference.

5. That each Minister in active service (Members of Conference, Members on Trial, Supply Pastors) be apportioned $\frac{1}{4}$ of 1 per cent of his cash salary received during the year, adding enough to make the amount even dollars. The Committee to furnish the District Superintendents with lists of such apportionments for their respective districts not later than January 1st, 1939; the Superintendents to notify each pastor on his district of his apportionment. Pastors may raise this apportionment as an Annual Benevolence, sell the copies and apply the proceeds to the Minute Fund of the Charge for the next year.

EXCEPTIONS:—Supernumerary Ministers may purchase copies of the Journal at the published price of 50 cents per copy. Retired Ministers and Ministers' Widows may purchase copies of the Journal at the price of 10 cents per copy. Preachers in detached service shall be apportioned $2.00 each per year. District Superintendents shall be apportioned $5.00 each per year.

6. The Committee shall publish as many copies of the Journal as funds in hand will allow and apportion the same to the Ministers who pay the apportionments as above.

ARTHUR LAZENBY, Chairman.

H. EUGENE MODLIN, Treasurer.

ROWLAND ASPINALL, Secretary.

Morgantown, W. Va., September 23, 1938.

The West Virginia Conference Deaconess Board met for their meeting at First M. E. Church, Morgantown, September 23 at 1:30 o'clock.

Tributes

THE HONORABLE SAMUEL V. WOODS

In Memory

The very name resounds with dignity, honor, uprightness, and service.

He was blessed with good ancestors. His early training equipped him for service in his native State, as well as in his church; and he was not stingy in either field.

He was deeply religious, proving a good witness in his daily life for Jesus Christ.

His service to the State was in the field of law where he exalted his profession by clean practices, and in the political life where he demonstrated the rare truth that a man can be a christian and at the same time serve his State in a public way.

His service to his church was through his definite affiliation with local church activities; his devotion to West Virginia Wesleyan College to which he gave many years of usefulness as president of the board of trustees; and in the church at large.

He was highly honored in being elected to the General Conference by his fellow representatives in the Lay Electoral Conference, and following this service acted as a member of the publishing committee of the Pittsburgh Christian Advocate.

In whatever sphere he moved, he bore himself with dignity and poise.

In daily life, he conducted himself as one who loved God; in business a man of ability; in church as loyal.

He was a good gift to the church, and we reluctantly give him back to God.

We lament his passing, and to his many friends and relatives we commend our dear Lord and Master as the one in whom we find our every need supplied, and our troubled minds set at ease.

REVEREND E. D. W. KING

AND

MRS. ROSA S. KING

E. D. W. King, the son of Samuel and Mary Riley King, and Rosa Starcher, the daughter of Samuel and Sarah Starcher, were both born in Ripley, West Virginia; he, June 24, 1847, she, April 28, 1849; there, they grew up together; there, they were united in marriage June 18, 1874; there, he was licensed to preach and begin his ministry. When Reverend King retired from the ministry, there, they resided until his death, December 26, 1935, aged 88 years, 6 months and 2 days; there, she died June 15, 1937, aged 88 years, 1 month and 17 days. Theirs was a beautiful parallel of life.

Reverend and Mrs. King were survived by an adopted son James C. King, and a foster daughter, Mrs. G. C. Casto.

Brother King was converted at a Methodist meeting in his young manhood. Soon thereafter he felt a call to preach and in March, 1874, he was admitted to the West Virginia Conference on trial. Two years later, at the Conference held in Morgantown, he was ordained elder by Bishop Mathew Simpson. Owing to poor health he took a supernumerary relation in 1879, returning to active work in 1887. He continued in the active ministry with marked success, until superannuated in 1907. Some of the circuits he served as preacher in charge were: Bell Creek, Letart, Leon, Smithville, Ripley, South Parkersburg, Pruntytown, West Milford and Volcano. One each of the last two circuits he served for four years.

Reverend King was a self-educated man, of deep and intense spiritual convictions, his passion, the conversion and spiritual growth of his fellow men.

The Reverend F. H. J. King, late a member of this Conference was a brother, and their combined services, in this Conference, was one hundred and ten years. A goal seldom, if ever, reached by any other two brothers.

Of Reverend E. D. W. King and his wife, Rosa Starcher King, it may be said that they were of those who, "Do justly, love mercy, and walk humbly" with their God. What more doth the Lord require?

HARVEY W. HARMER

HYRE D. CLARK

Hyre D. Clark was born near Lorentz, March 21, 1847 the son of Jacob and Susanna Crites Clark. He studied at country schools and then at Fairmont State Normal School where he graduated in 1871, being the first graduate of that School. He taught at the old French Creek Academy and at a school known as Peabody's Institute held in the Court House at Buckhannon.

About this time Brother Clark went to Pleasant Hill, Missouri to teach and while there was licensed to preach. He returned to the East and went to Allegheny College, Meadville, Pa., where in 1868 he received his A. B. In 1881 he received a master's degree from Allegheny. Illinois Wesleyan gave him D.D., and Ph.D., degrees in 1893 and 1898. He was at one time a trustee of West Virginia Wesleyan College.

Between 1880 and 1903 Dr. Clark preached in Illinois and for two years was President of Hedding College. In Illinois in 1903 Dr. Clark married Grace May Clippinger of Monmouth. They returned to West Virginia and Dr. Clark preached at Huntington, Mannington, Buckhannon and Terra Alta. He also taught Latin, Hebrew and Greek in West Virginia Wesleyan College.

Dr. Clark died in Buckhannon on Sunday, January 2, 1938 after and illness resulting from the weaknesses of old age. He was a few months past ninety years of age.

He is survived by his widow and by two daughters, Josephine, an interior decorator, and Lois, a librarian—both in New York City. A sister, Mrs. Boyd Berry lives at Lorentz, and a son, Howard, died several years ago.

Services were conducted at our Church in Buckhannon by the pastor, Sheridan Watson Bell, together with H. Roy Waugh and Ralph Brown. Burial was in Heavner Cemetery.

In the passing of Dr. Clark we lose one in whom were combined beautifully reverence and scholarship.

HARVEY SCOTT CHAPMAN

Harvey Scott Chapman was born October 30, 1873 at Summersville, Nicholas County, West Virginia and died at Richwood in the same County, November 27, 1937, aged 64. He had four brothers and one sister.

He was the son of Jacob Coleman Chapman and Mary (Brown) Chapman. He was converted at the age of fourteen during the pastorage of W. P. Guim on the Earl Charge. Before going into the ministry he spent a number of years teaching vocal music in Nicholas and adjoining counties.

Brother Chapman attended Summersville Normal School and West Virginia Wesleyan College. He studied music under B. C. Unsell and J. H. Hall.

On October 14, 1906 he married Anna Reigh Groves who was the daughter of John William Groves and Evelyn (McCue) Groves. They had five children—Hazel Groves Chapman, Marjorie McCue, Charlotte Anne, Lois Julia and Mary Virginia. The two last named died in infancy. Hazel married Russell Standiford and lives at Middlebourne where he preaches in the Baptist Church; Marjorie married Mont S. Will and lives in New England; Charlotte is a nurse and lives in Brooklyn, New York City.

Brother Chapman served the following charges: Summersville (Junior Pastor with J. M. Ochletree) 1902-3, Birch River, Crumpler, Wayne (now Lavalette), Arnettsville, Blacksville, Mannington Circuit, Hundred, Triadelphia, Philippi, Richwood. Between the Crumpler and Wayne appointments he spent another year at West Virginia Wesleyan College.

Brother Chapman was in the fourth year of his Richwood pastorage when he died after an illness of a few weeks. He is survived by his widow and three daughters.

Funeral services were conducted in our church at Richwood on Monday afternoon, November 29, by David Ralph Dunn, Superintendent of the Charleston District, O. E. Elkins, Harvey Orr (Presbyterian), Mr. Campbell (Methodist Episcopal, South), Mrs. Helen Hill Tanner (Baptist) and Charles Alfred Snider (a former pastor of the Richwood Church). Burial was at Arnettsville the following day.

In the passing of Brother Chapman we lose for awhile the fellowship of one who had the confidence of all with whom he talked. He was perfectly sincere.

REV. ARCHIBALD MOORE

The Rev. Archibald Moore, D.D., was born at Sarahsville, Ohio, May 11, 1862. When a youth of fifteen years he came to West Virginia and at the age of twenty years he began preaching the gospel in the southern part of the state. For forty years he was in the active work as pastor.

His first appointment was at Flat-top Mountain: this circuit was sixty miles long with only one church; he preached in school-houses and farmers homes. The salary was $70.00 per year. His second circuit was East Hamlin; then Barboursville and Milton charges.

Feeling his need of richer supplies of educational knowledge he entered Ohio Wesleyan College.

Dr. Moore returned to West Virginia and was appointed to the Malden charge; here he was united in marriage to Miss Lucy Lawrence of Hamlin. To this union were born two sons and one daughter—Lawrence Brooks, Dana Trescott and Mary Virginia.

Clarksburg was his next appointment, here he repaired the church at a cost of over $6,000.00. Then to Zane Street, Wheeling and Grafton. After successful pastorates in all these churches, he was made District Superintendent of the Wheeling District: at the termination of his six years on the district he became pastor of North Street, Wheeling. During his pastorate there the church building underwent much needed repairs. His next field of labor was Mannington. Here, he remained six years, leaving a fine $18,000.00 parsonage to crown his efforts. Parkersburg and Oakland were blessed by his ministry. Once again he became District Superintendent, the Bishop appointing him to the Oakland District, managing the affairs of the district with rare skill. During Dr. Moore's term on the district a division was made and part of the district was thrown with into the Morgantown District, with Dr. Moore as Superintendent of the Morgantown District.

At the end of his term on the district, he served the Oakland church three years, then Huntington and St. Mary's churches. When pastor of St. Mary's his health failed him and he found it necessary at the end of the first year to ask the Conference for Retired relationship; his desire was granted and Oakland became his home. Dr. Moore was abundant in labors during the years of retirement. On the night of January 24th, 1938, he ceased at once to live and act down here and his spirit hastened up to "The House of Many Mansions."

In the passing of Rev. Archibald Moore, D.D., Methodism has lost one of its most useful sons. He was a man of splendid gifts. His practical sagacity and overflowing sympathy for the sorrowing and helpless made his character a rare combination of fine qualities unified by the love of the Lord Jesus Christ.

His preaching was intense and full of spiritual insight and very truly evangelical. As a District Superintendent, brother Moore showed marked administrative ability and tackled many knotty problems with success. His passing is at once a grievous blow and an additional agreement for "The Life Everlasting."

GREGORY BLEAKLY.

REV. LEWIS ANDERSON McNEMAR

Rev. Lewis Anderson McNemar, a retired minister of the Methodist Episcopal Church, was born near Heater Station, Braxton County, West Virginia, March 11, 1858.

He was the son of Joseph C. and Racena Heater McNemar. He was the seventh child of eight children, all of whom are deceased. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Elizabeth Ann McNemar a stepson Paul L. Wolfe, and two granddaughters Louise and Methel Ann Teagarden, who passed away in February last year.

Rev. McNemar, in his early manhood taught school in Lewis County. He was licensed to preach in 1887 and began his ministry in the Methodist Protestant Church, and continued in the ministry of that church for fifteen years. In 1903, he transferred to the Methodist Episcopal Church, and served in the West Virginia Annual Conference until 1924, when he retired.

During the twenty one years of his effective ministry, he served the following charges, Aurora, Evansville, Logansport, Farmington, Wallace, Marshall, Moundsville Circuit, Friendly, Meadville, Ravenswood, Highland Avenue and Webster.

His funeral was conducted January 7, 1938, from the Webster church, where he attended, by the Rev. R. O. Phillips assisted by Dr. D. C. Pickens. His body was laid to rest in Bellview Cemetery Fairmont, West Virginia.

Brother McNemar had been in declining health for about two years. He was aware of the approach of the end, and triumphantly awaited his coronation.

REV. R. O. PHILLIPS.

RACHEL ELIZABETH BALL

Rachel Elizabeth Ball, widow of the Rev. C. W. Ball of the West Virginia Conference, Methodist Episcopal Church, was born near Winchester, Frederick County, Virginia, October 3, 1852 and died in Hedgesville, W. Va., May 8, 1938, just two years and one day after the death of her husband. Funeral services were conducted by her pastor, Rev. Lavelly Gruber of the Hedgesville Methodist Episcopal Church and interment was in the Hedgesville cemetery. She is survived by seven children and eighteen grandchildren, and nine great grandchildren, also one brother and one sister.

She was the daughter of Josiah and Mary Haines Jackson both of whom were life-long residents of Frederick County. Mr. Jackson being a Quaker and Mrs. Jackson a Methodist.

Mrs. Ball joined the Methodist Church in early young womanhood and remained a staunch and true member throughout her long life. She married the Rev. Charles Wesley Ball in 1887, at that time her pastor and serving the Berryville (Virginia) charge of what was then the Virginia Conference, since dissolved. They became the parents of nine children two of whom died in early childhood. Mr. and Mrs. Ball celebrated their golden wedding anniversary in 1927 and lived together over fifty eight years.

Mrs. Ball became the wife of a Methodist minister at a time when that calling meant real sacrifice and hardship but hers was the sterling character necessary to meet and overcome such hardships and her loved and loving companion throughout more than a half century of life together could always depend on her loyal and loving support in all the exigencies of that life. She went with him cheerfully wherever duty seemed to call and never shirked any of the labors imposed on a minister's wife. Even when her children were small and she could readily have been excused from such duties. Sunday after Sunday she took seven children to Sunday School and taught a class.

She had a fine soprano voice and until the disabilities of age robbed her of it she was usually to be found in the choir leading the singing. Often when her husband served churches where there was no musical instrument of any sort she was called on to 'raise' the tunes. Though never in robust health, more often than not she accompanied her husband on his rounds of pastoral visits, which meant in those days, slow, weary miles with a horse and buggy. She loved people and her interest in them was genuine and so in passing from one place to another, as is the way of Methodists she always left behind her a host of warm friends, with many of whom she managed to retain contact.

She knew poverty, hardship, sorrow, pain and suffering, but throughout it all her faith and trust in a loving Father never wavered and at the end of a long and seemingly hard life she could say, "God has been very good to me."

She was that best of God's creations a good wife and mother and "her children rise up to call her blessed."

MRS. C. B. MEREDITH

(By a Son)

Marion Maxwell Meredith, widow of Rev. C. B. Meredith, was born May 29, 1854, in Harrison county; died July 8, 1938, at her home in Morgantown. Following funeral services held July 10 at the home, 50 Lincoln avenue, which were conducted by the Rev. James P. Hutchinson, interment took place at Woodlawn cemetery in Fairmont.

She was a daughter of Amos and Ruhama Morris Maxwell, who were descendants of the earliest settlers of Harrison county. She was married to C. B. Meredith in 1869 and they resided in many different communities in West Virginia, where he served as a minister of the Methodist Episcopal church.

Mrs. Meredith was a woman of the finest christian character, a devoted wife and mother. She was a consistent reader of the Bible, as well as many publications devoted to the interests of her church. While the frailties of age prevented her from attending church services for many years, she derived great satisfaction from listening to religious services over her radio. In her last days she was happy in the anticipation of the peace and joys of the better world.

The following children survive: A. W. and C. C. Meredith, Fairmont; Mrs. Lulu Corder, Elkins; Mrs. Grace Squires, Morgantown; Mrs. Frances Albright, Valparaiso, Indiana; W. A. Meredith, Shinnston; L. S. Meredith, St. Petersburg, Florida; M. B. Meredith and Kate Meredith, Morgantown; Mrs. Alice White, Keyser; Mrs. Otis Young, Apple Grove, Mason county. One son, C. Earl Meredith, died in 1934 at Salem. A large number of grandchildren and great grandchildren survive.

REV. SHERIDAN WATSON BELL

*"And I heard a voice from Heaven,
As the voice of many waters
And they sing as it were a new Song before the throne."*

On Sunday morning, May 1st, Sheridan Watson Bell, minister of the Methodist Episcopal Church for the past forty years died in Buckhannon, West Virginia, of a cerebral hemorrhage. Dr. Bell had been in ill health since the first of the year and had recently returned from a month's rest in Florida, to his pulpit, apparently fully restored to health, to preach magnificently the Holy Week and Easter services.

Dr. Bell was born on a farm near Xenia, Ohio, September 24, 1864, son of Erasmus and Martha Watson Bell. He married Claora Gunnison of Newport, New Hampshire. Surviving with Mrs. Bell are four children and eight grandchildren. The children are Corinne, wife of Reverend A. Wilbur Wishart, Professor of Bible and College Pastor, Washington and Jefferson College, Washington, Pennsylvania; Alice, wife of James R. Wylie, Jr., Wilksburg, Pennsylvania; Claora, wife of Reverend Charles M. Styron, minister United Church, Lincoln, Massachusetts and Sheridan Watson Bell, Jr., associate pastor, Indianola Methodist Church, Columbus, Ohio.

Dr. Bell attended Ohio Wesleyan University where he received an A. B. degree with the class of 1895 and Boston University, School of Theology with an S.T.B. in 1898 with special work at Harvard. In 1912, Ohio Wesleyan honored him with the D.D. degree. Dr. Bell returned from Boston to serve sixteen years in the Cincinnati Conference at Price Hill, Miamisburg, Piqua, Madisonville and Hamilton, Ohio. In 1913 he became pastor of the Washington Square Church, New York City, where he made a notable contribution to that section of the city for four and a half years serving the needs of the large immigrant group in the Greenwich Village area. In 1918 he became pastor of the First Church, Erie, Pennsylvania, and three years later South Avenue Church, Wilksburg, Pennsylvania, where he served nine distinguished years. For the last ten years Dr. Bell was a member of the West Virginia Conference, serving six years at First Church, Morgantown, and he was in his fourth year at First Church, Buckhannon.

Dr. Bell's brilliant mind, adequate training, and his intrepid Christian spirit made him a highly acceptable preacher. His sympathetic, friendly, radiant personality made him a beloved pastor. His vigorous message particularly challenged youth. In his West Virginia pastorate he served the youth of the University and West Virginia Wesleyan. He was a fearless preacher, exalting the mind of Christ and searching out its meaning in every aspect of life.

The ministry of West Virginia has been strengthened and challenged by the contact it had with Dr. Bell. He brought a spirit of brotherhood and cooperation into his association with his fellow ministers. The spirit of his ministry will remain as an inspiration to those who follow. Of the many tributes which have been written to Dr. Bell's family none is more beautiful than this: "It was almost as if I see a figure clad in white array and he knocked at your front door and walking in, said to your father, 'For these many Sunday mornings you have preached with fervor and enthusiasm the Good News of my Lord. Before faulty and struggling men you have lifted a heartening hope. This morning I am bidden to tell you that you shall preach your first sermon before the Church Triumphant.' And with shining face your father hastened away to keep his Sunday preaching engagement with his Lord."

*"The trumpets are calling, I've come to the sea,
But far out in the moon-lighted glow,
I still hear the trumpets, they're calling to me,
The trumpets are calling—I go!"*

—SHERIDAN WATSON BELL, Jr.

The following Ministers also died:

Samuel James Cotton, Phillip Yeager DeBolt, J. M. Grose.

The following Ministers' Wives or Widows:

Jennie Lambert Kepler, Mary M. Compton, Mrs. Alonzo T. Morriston, Mrs. James H. Daugherty, Anna Virginia Shackelford.

XIII. OFFICIAL JOURNAL OF THE WEST VIRGINIA LAY CONFERENCE

The West Virginia Lay Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church was called to order in the Methodist Protestant Church in Morgantown, West Virginia at 2:00 P. M., Thursday, September 22, 1938, by the President, Charles H. Hartley. Prayer was offered by Harvey W. Harmer of Clarksburg.

The roll was called by districts, 108 delegates and 40 reserves answered to their names.

(See minutes of 1937 Conference for complete roster, with post office addresses.)

Dr. Roy McCuskey, President of West Virginia Wesleyan College, and Clyde O. Law, of Wheeling, then gave brief, though informative, addresses on the general subject of "Some Problems Facing the Uniting Conference".

A collection was taken for Conference expenses, amounting to $46.81.

Upon adoption of a motion that the delegates from each district select one member of a nominating committee, the following committee was selected:

Buckhannon District.....	L. C. Shingleton
Charleston District.....	J. A. Greenlee
Huntington District.....	A. C. Hinerman
Morgantown District.....	W. A. Beavers
Wheeling District.....	Geo. W. Bowers

A motion was also made and carried that this committee be given authority to fill vacancies in Conference committees having lay representation.

The next order of business being election of two delegates and two reserves to the Uniting Conference, a motion was made and carried that nominating speeches be limited to two minutes.

The following nominations for delegates were made:

Charles W. Evans, of Farmont
E. V. Bowers, of Huntington
W. T. Williamson, of Charleston
Mrs. Harvey W. Harmer, of Clarksburg
Charles H. Hartley, of Morgantown.

The following tellers were appointed:

Wm. J. Ward
F. W. Pritt
E. M. West
Wayne L. Meredith
W. C. Snedeker.

After the vote was taken and tellers retired to count the ballots, the nominating committee reported a recommendation that the present officers be elected to serve the ensuing year, as follows:

President.....Chas. H. Hartley, Morgantown District
Vice-President.....Irvin Dugan, Huntington District
Secretary-Treasurer.....Roy Reger, Charleston District

On motion the report was adopted and the nominees elected.

The vote on first ballot was reported by the tellers as follows:

Total votes cast, 98.
Necessary for a choice, 50.
Mrs. Harvey W. Harmer received 61 votes.
Chas. W. Evans received 57 votes.
Chas. H. Hartley received 33 votes.
W. T. Williamson received 25 votes.
E. V. Bowers received 18 votes.

Thereupon Mrs. Harvey W. Harmer and Chas. W. Evans were declared duly elected.

The following were placed in nomination for reserve delegates:

E. V. Bowers
W. T. Williamson
Chas. H. Hartley.

Ballot was taken, and the result announced as follows:

Total votes cast, 89.

Necessary for a choice, 45.

Chas. Hartley received 64 votes.

W. T. Williamson received 60 votes.

E. V. Bowers received 53 votes.

Charles H. Hartley and W. T. Williamson thereupon were declared duly elected as reserve delegates.

A motion was made and carried that a vote of thanks be given to the officers and members of the Methodist Protestant Church for the use of their church.

On motion the Lay Conference adjourned.

CHAS. H. HARTLEY,
President.

ROY REGER,
Secretary.

WEST VIRGINIA WESLEYAN COLLEGE

Buckhannon, West Virginia

1890 — THE SEMI-CENTENNIAL — 1940 YEAR

The Founders of West Virginia Wesleyan College believed that EACH SEPARATE HUMAN BEING IS OF INFINITE WORTH TO GOD. They believed that teachers who themselves fully accept Christ's teaching as to the worth of life can best instruct those who are to become leaders of the church and state. They believe that students thus educated become the most effective in creating an enduring human brotherhood and in advancing the Kingdom of God. Therefore out of their meager resources they made the heavy sacrifices necessary to establish this institution.

This College for fifty years has been committed to these principles; that religion and education belong together, that they should be developed together in every human life, that religion is an essential part of every well-rounded human life, that education suffers without religion and religion suffers without education, that civilization is doomed without the ministries of education undergirded by genuine religion.

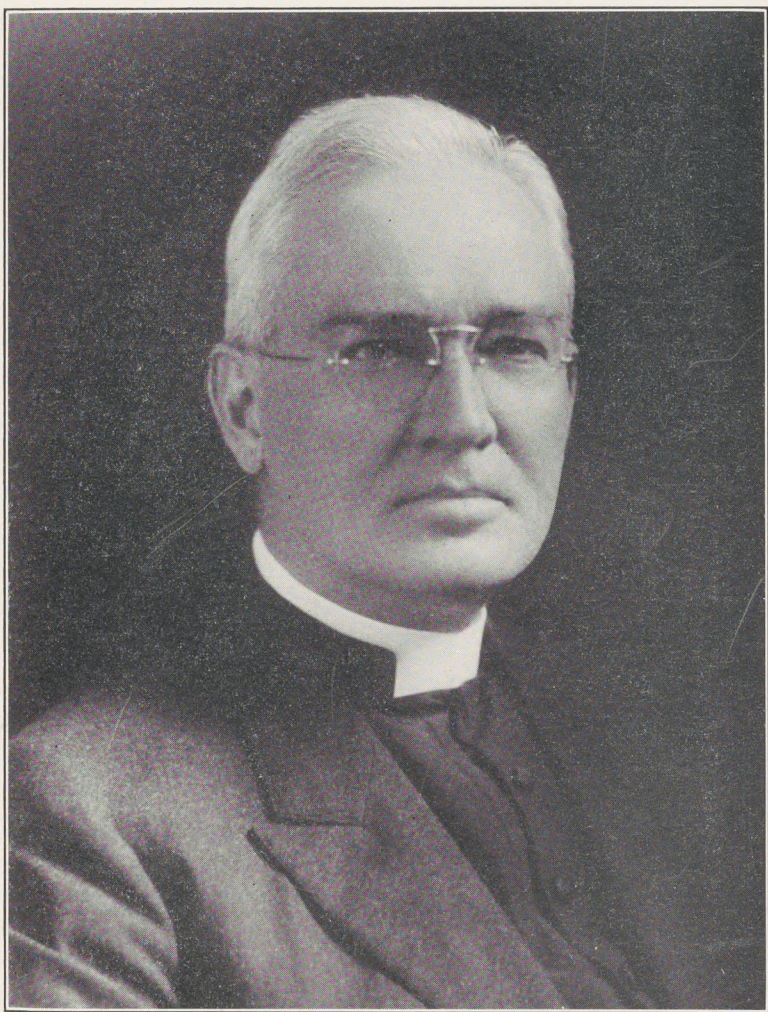

Is not education without the Christian religion working enough havoc in the world of today to cause every right-thinking person to recognize the soundness of these principles and to do all in his power to support and strengthen a college that gives God a central place in its life?

Time has proved the wisdom of the fathers in the foundations which they laid a half-century ago. We rightly honor them by building for coming centuries on these foundations. What are the first steps to be taken?

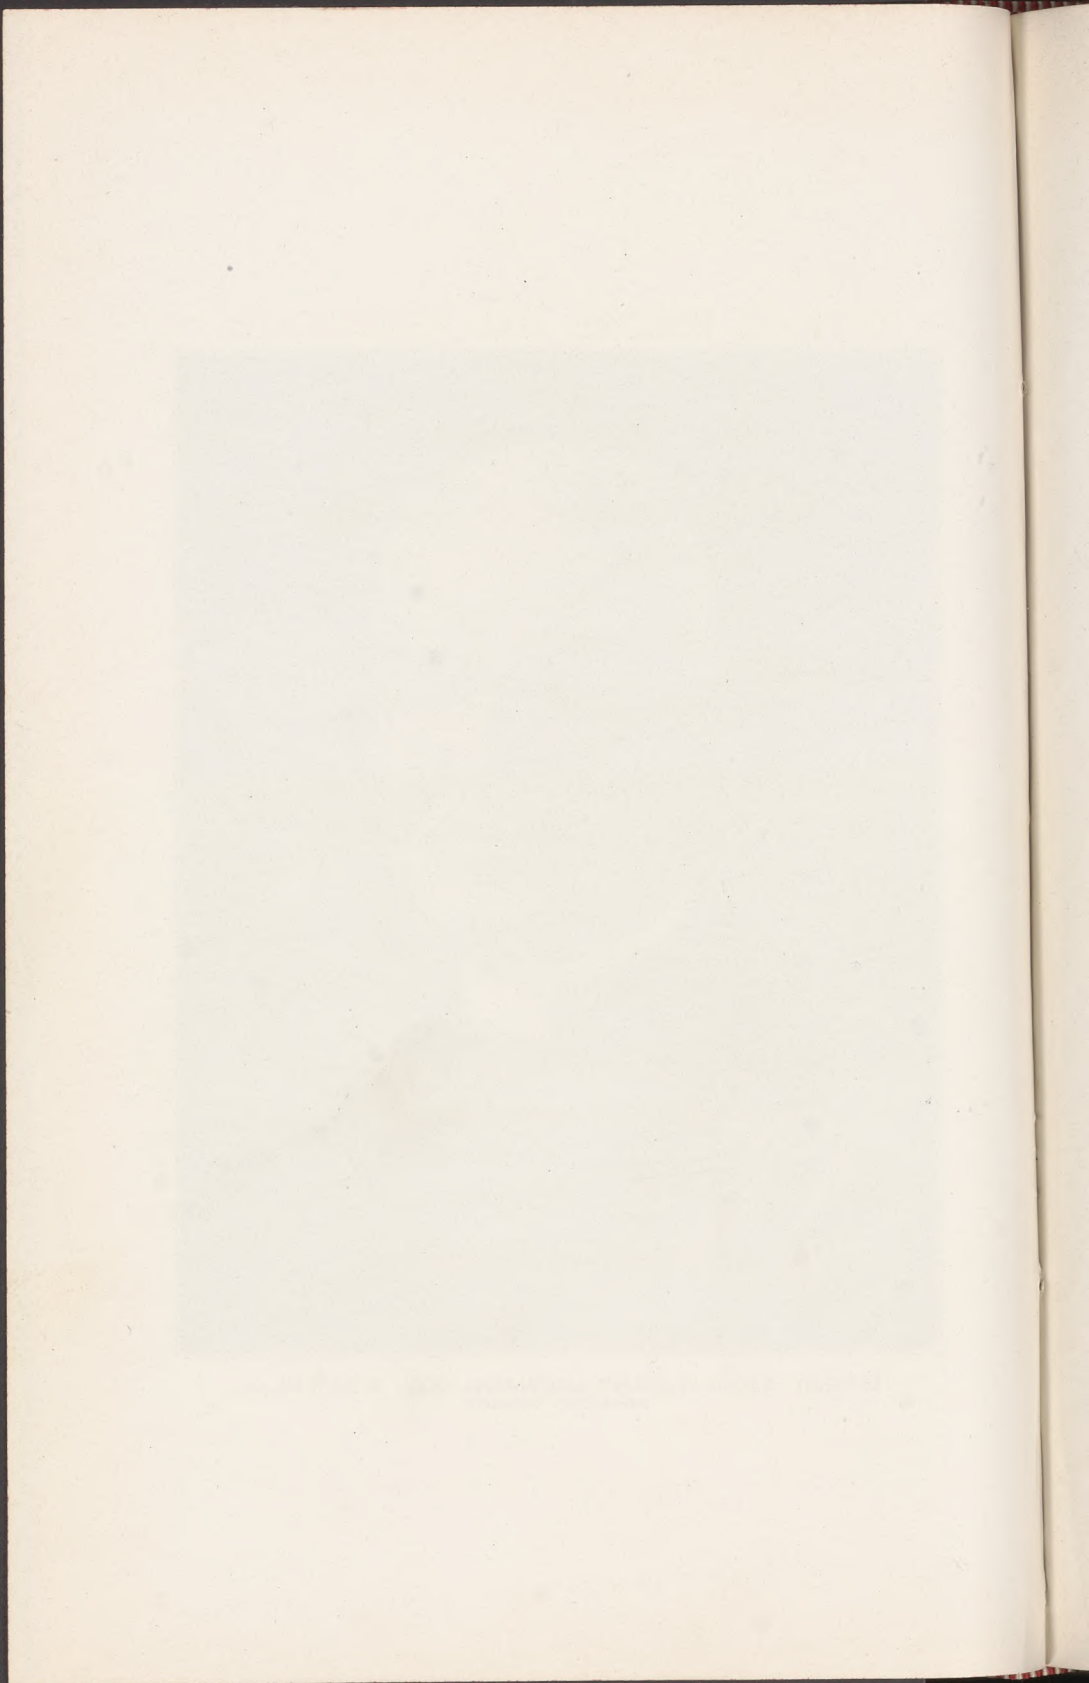

The College needs to be freed from debt and to have all of its buildings put in proper repair. It needs a new library building, and a half-million dollars of additional permanent endowment. These are the needs to be cared for in the Semi-Centennial Campaign for One Million Dollars that is now in progress.

With the unification of the three great denominations into the Methodist Church, the College faces vast new opportunities and responsibilities. It salutes its new owners; and pledges itself to serve to the limit of its powers.

DISCIPLINARY QUESTION—

Question 39—Who have had their Conference Membership terminated?

(a) By Voluntary location: E. L. Hinerman.

RESOLUTION ON DISPOSITION OF PROPERTY—THE THREE FOLLOWING RESOLUTIONS WERE ADOPTED BY THE CONFERENCE:

The First Quarterly Conference of the Petroleum Pastoral Charge, meeting in regular session at the Cooley Chapel, Nov. 17, 1938, adopted, on motion of A. B. Valentine, seconded by H. C. Netzer, carried, the following resolution:

In view of the fact that the Sharpnack Church, located on Dry Ridge, Grant District, Ritchie County, West Virginia, and within the bounds of the Petroleum Pastoral Charge, has been for some years abandoned and unfit for a place of worship, and further, that the public highway has been moved and the former highway is now fenced in and no longer used for travel, be it therefore resolved: That the Quarterly Conference of the Petroleum Charge hereby petitions the West Virginia Conference to authorize and order A. F. Daubenspeck, B. W. Fouty and Mrs. Will Fouty, Trustees of the said Sharpnack Church, to sell the Church building, salable equipment and the Church lot, and to hold all monies received from such sale or sales subject to the order of the West Virginia Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

C. G. STATER, President.

EVELYN EPLER, Secretary.

The Second Quarterly Conference of the Middlebourne Charge, Wheeling District, West Virginia Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, meeting in regular session at Middlebourne Church, of the said charge, March 15, 1939, adopted without dissenting vote, on motion of Rev. A. C. Riffe, seconded by Mr. Palmer Nichols, the following resolution:

In view of the facts that the Pleasant Ridge Union Church, deeded to the Methodist Episcopal Church, the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, the Methodist Protestant Church and the Baptist Church, has been for some years abandoned and unfit for a place of Divine Worship, and further, that there seems to be no remote probability of its ever being reopened as a place of worship,

Be It Therefore Resolved:

That the Quarterly Conference of the Middlebourne Charge herein and hereby respectfully petitions the West Virginia Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church to grant that the Trustees representing the Methodist Episcopal Church on the board of Trustees of the Pleasant Hill Union Church may sell and dispose of the share of the Methodist Episcopal Church or its property rights in the said church building, and that the said trustees shall hold all monies received from such sale or sales subject to the authority of West Virginia Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church or its successor, the West Virginia Conference of the Methodist Church,

The First Quarterly Conference of the Petroleum Pastoral or such other authority as may be provided by the authority of the Uniting Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, the Methodist Episcopal Church, South and the Methodist Protestant Church.

C. G. STATER
W. H. WAYMAN

Resolution relative to sale, Beechwood Heights M. E. Church in Parkersburg, Huntington District.

In view of the fact that the Beechwood Heights Methodist Episcopal church is in debt to the amount of approximately $5,100.00 (fifty-one hundred dollars) the same being covered by a first mortgage held by the Commercial Banking and Trust Company, of Parkersburg, W. Va., and;

Whereas it is known to be the intention of the said Banking and Trust Company to foreclose the mortgage soon after the Annual Conference, and;

Whereas such foreclosure would in all probability not more than satisfy the mortgage, and;

Whereas it is a fact that the property can be sold by the church before foreclosure with a considerable margin above the mortgage indebtedness, and;

Whereas the church officials at a regular meeting approved by the district superintendent, did request that such sale be allowed, and;

Whereas the matter was presented to the cabinet where it received the unanimous vote of the superintendents;

Therefore, be it resolved that this Annual conference now in session order the sale of said Beechwood Heights Methodist Episcopal Church property and dispose of the proceeds according to the Discipline.

(The resolution was unanimously adopted by the Conference.)

PUBLICATION OF MINUTES—On motion of D. C. Pickens it was requested that the Committee on Printing the Old Unpublished Conference Minutes and the Committee on Publication of Conference Journal present a composite report.

REPORT—OF BOARD OF EDUCATION—Dr. Roy McCuskey presented a report on West Virginia Wesleyan College. See Report.

BISHOP'S HOUR—The Hymn, No. 315, "How Firm a Foundation" was sung after which Perry James led in Prayer. Bishop Leonard spoke on "The Perils and Responsibilities of Ambition."

ADJOURNMENT—The Benediction was pronounced by Bishop Leonard—the Conference adjourned.

THIRD DAY, THURSDAY—AFTERNOON SESSION

DEVOTIONAL SERVICE—The Conference was called to order at 2:00 o'clock by Bishop Leonard. The Hymn No. 249, "I Love To Tell the Story" was sung; after which Dr. Hartung led in prayer.

WEST VIRGINIA CONFERENCE

DISCIPLINARY QUESTIONS—

Question 11.—What amounts has been apportioned to the Pastoral Charges within the Conference, to be raised for the support of Conference Claimants?
An amount not less than that of last year.

Question 13.—What approved financial campaigns are to be carried on in this Conference during the ensuing year, and for what amounts?
West Virginia Wesleyan College.

Question 14.—What is the schedule of Minimum Support?
None.

ADJOURNMENT OF THE WEST VIRGINIA CONFERENCE (OF THE FORMER METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH)—The Conference stood and was led in prayer by John Beddow after which one verse of "Blest Be the Tie that Binds." Bishop Leonard pronounced the Benediction and the 93rd Session of the West Virginia Conference (of the former Methodist Episcopal Church) stood adjourned.

WE HEREBY CERTIFY: That the foregoing is a correct record of the proceedings of the Ninety-third Session of the West Virginia Conference.

ADNA WRIGHT LEONARD,
President.
ROWLAND ASPINALL,
Secretary.

DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT

Bishop Leonard, Fathers, and Brethren, Greetings:

We, your District Superintendents, present the following report for the Conference year of 1938-39:

Our Honored Dead

Once again we call the roll of those who have been transferred to the Church Triumphant. From among our retired ministers, Dr. M. F. Compton of Moundsville, Dr. Frank S. Townsend of Buckhannon, Reverend E. Grant Hutchinson of Morgantown and Reverend A. S. Arnett of Salem. On January 21, 1939, Mrs. Sallie M. Beddow, the wife of Reverend John Beddow, our pastor at Shepherd's Chapel, Charleston, passed from labor to reward. We reverently record the name of our Supply Pastor at Winona, Rev. G. V. Fitzwater, who has been transferred to the Church Triumphant. Our hearts go out in sympathy to the loved ones of our many laymen who have deceased. We record here the names of Senator Harry Elbon of Cameron and Mr. William T. Williamson of Charleston.

Mrs. Charles C. O'Neill, wife of Reverend Charles C. O'Neill, pastor of the Brave Charge, suffered a stroke of paralysis and has been ill for several months.

Our Bishop

For seven years, Bishop Leonard has gone in and out among us as our Resident Bishop, and it is now with great pride that we think of him and speak of him as "our Bishop" We are very happy, indeed, that the Uniting Conference returned him to us. We know so well the strength of his leadership that we have a sense of security in the midst of all the difficult problems that must be faced in the task of leading the churches to work together. Bishop Leonard, we extend to you our heartiest welcome as the Resident Bishop of the New West Virginia Methodist Conference and pledge to you our most loyal support.

Spiritual Activities

Reports from the charges indicate that the Church is enjoying a high degree of spiritual health. Various methods of evangelism have been used during the past year. Special meetings have been held in nearly all the charges in the Conference. Incomplete reports show 6,462 conversions and 2,835 accessions to the church from preparatory membership and on profession of faith. Final reports should show a net increase in the church membership. One great step in advance lies in the fact that a considerable number of abandoned churches have been reopened.

Buildings and Improvements

The past two years have witnessed the general improvement of church properties. Much of that work has been done this year. In round numbers, at least $50,000.00 has been paid on improvements, and considerably above $25,000.00 on debts and this does not include Wheeling District and a part of Morgantown District where the actual figures have not been obtained. In Wheeling District, all debts are reported as under control, and in Morgantown District, the debt against the Westover church is still awaiting adjustment from the State Treasurer's office at Charleston. Special mention should be made as to the improvements of First Church, Fairmont, this large and beautiful church in which our Conference is being held. The church has been completely renovated at a cost of $5,000. Also, the parsonage has been reconditioned at a cost of $1,500.00. Very few new properties have been built. The Laurel Point Church of the Arnettville Charge is completing a community house of about $1,000.00 value. The Mt. Zion Church of the Newlon Charge which was destroyed more than a year ago by storm has been rebuilt at a cost of perhaps $1,200.00, including all donated labor. At Parkview in Parkersburg, a church has been built at a cost of approximately $4,000.00. On the Walton Charge, a church has been built at Ambler Ridge at a cost of $2,500.00.

Ministerial Support and Benevolences

Earlier in the Conference year, there was considerable anxiety in regard to our ministerial support and the benevolences of the church. The more recent reports are very much more encouraging. Figures cannot be given, but we believe that ministerial support will be nearly, if not quite, up to last year. On some of our charges, World service giving will surpass last year, but we fear that the average may fall below last year's figures. Much has been done toward World Service giving in many of our charges by organizing the church schools into missionary societies and observing the first Sunday in each month as Missionary Sunday, all of the offerings in the Church School for that day being applied to World Service apportionments.

Christian Education(a) West Virginia Wesleyan College

West Virginia Wesleyan College has had an exceptionally good year. The graduating class, numbering 116, was the largest in the history of the school. Indications point to a large entering class this fall. The most important activity of the year was the initial campaign within the Conference for one million dollars, which campaign is a part of the semi-centennial celebration. About 15,000 solicitations were made and a few over 4000 subscriptions taken. The majority of these were in small denominations as we do not now have a great number of large givers. Dr. Wallace B. Fleming and Dr. Roy McCuskey are to be highly commended for their fine leadership, and they and their helpers are settling down to a long term follow-up program until the objectives are reached. During this school year, we will celebrate a half-century of fine advancement. The inception of our school was inspired by the centennial of the organization of the Methodist Church in America. The Conference Committee on Centennial Celebration became the first group of trustees who pushed to conclusion the plans for the opening of the West Virginia Conference Seminary in 1890. It is very fitting that this great semi-centennial celebration should be observed in 1940. The program will start with the fall convocation, September 22, 1939, with Dr. Frank B. Trotter as speaker and close with the commencement program of 1940. We here call attention to Bishops' Day at the college. It will be observed October 27.

(b) Wesley Foundation

Our Wesley Foundation at West Virginia University at Morgantown has become one of our established and important projects. During the school year, there are nearly one thousand Methodist students in attendance at the University. This number will increase with the new Methodism. Reverend James P. Hutchinson, our Foundation pastor, has been successful in contacting hundreds of these Methodist students. His work is to be commended, and the First Church of Morgantown deserves our gratitude in that it furnishes rooms and office space for the Foundation. We believe that work should be continued and that plans should be worked out in such a way that the local churches in the Conference and the local church in Morgantown could have a definite understanding as to duties and obligations.

(c) Christian Education in the Local Church

We believe that Christian Education in the local Church is of such primary importance that there should be set up in our new Conference a comprehensive program and that strong leadership should be provided for the directing of this work. We commend the work that has already been done by the Reverend Harvey C. Porter. There is much to be done in the way of training teachers and other leaders, the building up of our Church Schools throughout the Conference and the leading and training of our young people for the future Church. Reports indicate that our Church School enrollment and average attendance is still on the increase. Teacher training has been emphasized. Daily Vacation Schools have been popular this summer. Among our young people of Epworth League age enthusiasm continues. There have been more district and sub-district institutes held this year than has been the average and very great interest has been manifested. The Institute at West Virginia Wesleyan College at Buckhannon was a pronounced success. The attendance reached about 350, and the work done by the Reverend Arthur Beckett, the dean, and his helpers was of a high order.

Lay Activities

We have already had a foretaste of the great spiritual possibilities of lay activities under the able leadership and comprehensive planning of our beloved Bishop. We are very sure that his plans will be difficult to surpass. However, we shall pray that the new set-up under our new Board, when it is organized, will go far beyond all expectations, that the laymen will find their opportunities in the Church as never before and that the Kingdom of God on earth will grow far more rapidly because of their work.

Women's Work

Too much cannot be said in praise of the work done by our good women. While the women are not fully organized in many of our smaller churches, yet the value of the work being done by them cannot be easily over-stated. Buckhannon, Huntington, and Morgan-town Districts report 35 Women's Foreign Missionary Societies and 48 Women's Home Missionary Societies. These three districts report 248 Ladies Aid Societies with a total of more than $40,000 raised at the time reports were made. New organizations among the women are being continuously formed and the work they may do in the future cannot be foretold.

Temperance and World Peace

Alcoholic beverages remain as ever the slave masters of the race. No amount of fine phrases and expensive advertisements can remove the heartache, poverty and sin caused by the liquor traffic. Intemperance is the enemy of all righteousness, and therefore, the enemy of Christ and His Church. Preacher and teacher occupy strategic positions in the education of the people and in leading them not only to practice abstinence but to use their influence to save their children and neighbors from the ravages of this destructive foe. The Church has not changed her convictions one iota in regard to the great evil of the liquor traffic. However, we are at fault in that we are not waging the active campaign in opposition to this great evil as we once did. We call upon every preacher, teacher, and lay member of the Church to become a militant soldier fighting against this arch enemy of the Kingdom of God.

Wars and rumors of wars persist. The undeclared war continues in China. War has begun in Europe. The end no one can foresee. What it may mean to our own nation, we cannot prophesy. Yet we believe the time will never come when the Church will be justified in ceasing to both work and pray for peace. We should ever be hopeful and, with Isaiah, should look forward to that day when every man may sit "under his own vine and fig tree". In order to maintain a strong faith, it is necessary that we take the long look, but let us always take our stand for Jesus and believe that we are moving forward to that glorious day when the meek shall inherit the earth.

"Lead on, O King Eternal
Till sin's fierce war shall cease,
And Holiness shall whisper,
The sweet Amen of peace."

Methodist Unification

Unification is here. We are at the threshold of a new era. History is in the making. What a glorious privilege to live in a day when the Methodists are becoming one people! But unification implies infinitely more than a mood of rejoicing. While we should face the New Methodism with unbounded enthusiasm, we must likewise face it with a deep sense of responsibility. Both preachers and laymen stand in need of God-given wisdom and great patience. "The Methodists are one people" should ring in our hearts like Cathedral bells until we are one in spirit as well as in organization. Let all our people cease to be over-anxious as to the merging of churches. Let us go on living together and working together in peace and harmony, endeavoring to please others rather than ourselves. In this spirit, we may go forward, though slowly, with all needed mergers of churches and reorganization of charges to the great profit of all concerned.

Suggestions and Recommendations

What of the future? Only wisdom of God can safely direct us as we proceed with the great tasks that lie immediately ahead. Nevertheless, we believe that there are certain outstanding needs that are clearly before us.

First, as ministers of the gospel, we should remind ourselves that we are never to permit any man, or class of men, to steal away our evangelistic crowns. Jesus came into the world to save individual men, and to save society, therefore, we as ministers should go as far as possible in making ourselves masters of all known evangelistic methods that we may lead men and women, boys and girls, to the feet of Jesus, and that we may do our part in transforming the kingdoms of this world into the Kingdoms of our Lord and His Christ.

Second, let us remind ourselves of our financial obligations to the Kingdom of God on earth. Some preachers are careless in the matter of making "proportional payments" of ministerial support. In this matter, we think the Discipline of the Church is clear. The pastor should carefully teach this law to his people until all understand, and every church should be organized to pay all the ministerial support in full. If this appears to be impossible, then "proportional payments" should always be made. It is tragedy when our retired ministers and widows are made to suffer because of disobedience to this law. Another matter to which we call attention is that of benevolences. A considerable number of our churches are not World Service conscious and there is still more laxness in the matter of Annual Conference Benevolences.

Third, let us look more carefully to the organization of our people for service. One of the secrets of organization lies in the assignment of definite tasks. Every worker must know definitely what he is expected to do, be given material with which to work and then be given inspiration to succeed in the work assigned.

Fourth, one further suggestion. Let us stretch our minds to a full comprehension of "The whole program of the whole Church for the whole world". We must envision and lead our people to envision the great magnitude of the work of the Kingdom of God on earth. We are doing a great work. We cannot come down. Let us set the whole program of the Church before our people and lead them to say with a shout of victory, "We can do all things through Him that strengtheneth us."

In conclusion, we wish to express our deepest gratitude to Almighty God for His divine leadership and for the health and strength he has given us as we have gone about our tasks. Thanks are due all our pastors and people for their courtesies and kindnesses. They have strewn our pathways with flowers and our hearts have been deeply touched by the patience and forbearance that has everywhere been manifest.

Now unto Him who is eternal, immortal, invisible, the only just and all-wise God, be glory and honor, dominion and power, now and forever. Amen.

JOURNAL

WEST VIRGINIA WESLEYAN COLLEGE

West Virginia Wesleyan College, formerly West Virginia Conference Seminary, is an educational institution incorporated under the laws of the State of West Virginia and located at Buckhannon, Upshur County, West Virginia, and has been operating under the control of the West Virginia Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church since its beginning in 1890, and under its present charter since January 19, 1920. The charter sets forth the objects and purposes of the college, and certain specifications governing the holding of property, the election of trustees, the formation of By-Laws, and other items which guarantee the operation of the college "under the immediate dominion, control, and supervision of the West Virginia Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church";

We express the hope that in the transfer of the college to the new West Virginia Conference of the Methodist Church, no change will be made in the statements of the charter, since it is our profound conviction that they are fundamental to the maintenance of a Christian College of such religious and educational standards as are worthy of Methodism in the State of West Virginia. Our prayer is that West Virginia Wesleyan College shall always remain in fact a Christian college under the control of the Methodist Church.

We are happy to report that the Semi-Centennial financial campaign carried on by the college, met with a good measure of success.

While the goal of one million dollars was not reached in the intensive movement of the past year, sufficient advance was made to warrant the decision by the Board of Trustees to continue the campaign through a carefully developed follow-up program under the direction of Vice President W. B. Fleming.

The president of the college has worked out a program of events for the school year 1939-40, designed to celebrate the semicentennial of the founding of the institution. The most important of these events, in which the whole conference should give full cooperation, is our annual Bishop's Day, which this year will be held Friday, October 27. We urge a complete organization of the districts of the new conference for this great day.

Our financial support of the college must continue. In fact, during this first year under the new organization, it is of utmost importance that our churches continue the payment of the conference apportionment. We recommend that the college in cooperation with the district superintendents, place before all the charges of the former Methodist Episcopal Conference, the same apportionment for the college as of last year, and that each pastor undertake to raise the same.

We nominate the following persons for the Board of Trustees of West Virginia Wesleyan College.

For 4 Years

Dr. L. G. Beerbower, Kingwood, W. Va.
Mr. Clyde O. Law, 900 Hawley Building, Wheeling, W. Va.
Mrs. Ellis A. Yost, Fairview, W. Va.
Rev. John E. Hanifan, D. D., Moundsville, W. Va.
Rev. T. M. Zumbrunnen, D. D., Elkins, W. Va.
Mr. Phil Conley, Litt. D., Charleston, W. Va.
Mr. Z. R. Knotts, Montgomery, W. Va.
Rev. Homer E. Wark, Ph.D., Clarksburg, W. Va.
Mr. C. H. Hartley, Morgantown, W. Va.

For 3 Years

Judge Lewis H. Miller, Ripley, W. Va.
Rev. Charles W. Fink, Lewisburg, W. Va.

Resolution from your Conference Committee on Entertainment:

1. That the Conference authorize the committee on entertainment to pay all financial obligations incurred by the Entertainment Commission in this session of our Conference and that if there is any balance after all conference entertainment bills have been paid, the amount to be held by our Treasurer until the Methodist Conference of West Virginia works out a plan for Conference entertainment and that the Treasurer be authorized to pay to the Treasurer of the new committee on Conference entertainment said balance.
2. We recommend that the Methodist Conference appoint a commission on Conference entertainment to work out a plan of conference entertainment patterned after that which has been in operation in our Conference.

Respectfully submitted,

John L. Wolfe,

Chairman Conference Commission on Entertainment.

Suggestions to the United Conference

We suggest

1. That the Journals of the three Uniting Conferences and of the United Conference be published in ONE VOLUME of FOUR SECTIONS.
2. That a sufficient number of copies of the Journal of the United Conference as may be required, be bound and issued separately.
3. That the method of Financing the Publication of the Journals be by an apportionment to each pastoral charge of an amount equal to $\frac{1}{4}$ of 1% (One Quarter of One Per Cent) of the cash salary of the pastor to the nearest even dollars.
4. That we request the District Superintendents to include in the final draft of appointments, the correct mailing address of each pastor in his District.

REPORT OF CUSTODIAN OF THE DR. DeBOLT LIBRARY

Pursuant to the Action of the last Annual Conference, after consultation with Dr. S. B. Hart, Secretary of Permanent Fund and the District Superintendent and other interested ministers the entire Library was given to a close friend of Dr. DeBolt, Dr. J. C. Buckley who had lost his entire library in the fire that destroyed the Seventh Avenue Church in Huntington. The price agreed upon was $20.00 which was paid by the Ministers of Huntington District and was immediately turned over to Secretary of Permanent Fund.

REPORT OF THE WORLD SERVICE COUNCIL

Your World Service Council wishes to present this brief report:

First, we take pride in the fact that with one possible exception the Pittsburgh Area leads all Methodism in World Service Support. We are chagrined, however, to discover that while our Area giving was $1.14 per member, in the West Virginia Conference we gave only .58 per member. Certainly every pastor will bestir himself to give to our Conference a better rating within our area.

Second, we urge a Conference-wide program of education that will acquaint every member of our church with the emergency which now confronts our World Service.

On the 31st of May reports showed a deficit of $195,000 up to that date. We face increased need and a decreased income. Through this period of transition till the General Conference of 1940, we must watch the loyalty and zeal of our brethren of the former Methodist Episcopal Church South and the Methodist Protestant Church.

Third, we request that in every church, one Sunday in each month be observed as Missionary Sunday in the Church School and that one such Sunday a missionary program be given and the offering be designated for the World Service program of the Church.

Fourth, that we set as our goal for the coming Conference Year the raising of 4,500 units or $54,000 for the World Service Program of the Church.

FOURTEENTH ANNUAL REPORT OF THE CONFERENCE ON METHODIST HISTORY

Methodist Leaders in West Virginia

By J. A. Earl

The story of West Virginia Methodism, with approximately 200,000 members is an important chapter in American church history. Rehoboth is the oldest church building west of the Alleghanies and Central Wheeling is the oldest German Methodist church in the world. The most prominent pioneer church in the west for a number of years was "The Old Stone Church" on Short Creek, Ohio County, where Asbury preached to "about one thousand souls" in 1807.

Asbury made thirty visits to West Virginia and Coke made at least one. Whatcoat was presiding elder in this state. Seven bishops Morris, Hamilton, J. W. Anderson, Clair, Grose and the Hughes Brothers were born in West Virginia. Eleven bishops, McKendree, Taylor, Bascom, Roberts, Hamline, Foster, Waugh, Clair, Morris, Darlington, and Broomfield, served pastorates in what is now West Virginia.

Jesse Lee, our first Methodist historian, Freeborn Garretson, who summoned the Christmas Conference, Peter Akers, inspirer of Lincoln, Valentine Cook, first native college-bred preacher, Asa Shinn, who preached before he ever saw a pulpit, Peter Cartwright, fighting parson, Thomas Scott, later first chief justice of Ohio, Wm. Beauchamp, publisher of the first Methodist periodical in America and F. F. Shannon, whose sermons are literary masterpieces, were pastors in West Virginia territory. Dean Chas. R. Brown of Yale Divinity School was born in Brooke County.

Gordon Bateelle, principal of Asbury and Northwestern Academies and chairman of the first constitutional convention committee on education, W. R. White, first state superintendent of schools, Alex Martin, first president and chief founder of the state university, Virgil A. Lewis, state historian, Alex Wade, originator of the country graded school system, John Rhey Thompson, brilliant president of the state university at 24, Thomas C. Miller, pioneer educator and Waitman T. Barbe, our greatest poet, were all Methodists.

Francis H. Pierpont, the Father of West Virginia, and six other governors, Boreman, Atkinson, Glasscock, Morgan, Hatfield and Conley, were Methodist laymen. Senator W. T. Willey, friend of Lincoln, Phillip Doddridge, the only man Webster ever feared in debate, General W. B. Curtis, friend of education, Henry K. List, banker and philanthropist, were Methodist leaders.

Among West Virginia Methodist women of distinction are: Isabelle Thoburn, founder of the first Christian college for women in Asia, Julia Pierpont, originator of Memorial Day, Anne Jarvis, Founder of Mothers' Day, Lenna Lowe Yost, international temperance worker, Anna Pierpont Siviter, editor of church school literature, Aose Mace, educator, and Julia Bonafield, missionary.

(Note. The above condensation of an article by the Rev. J. A. Earl, a member of this Committee, heretofore published in the West Virginia Review).

HISORICAL PUBLICATIONS

Church Histories

H. W. Newcomb of First Church, Huntington, and O. R. Snodgrass of Central German Church, Wheeling, have followed in the footsteps of Harvey W. Harmer of First Church, Clarksburg, in the matter of publishing their local church history; an excellent piece of work in both instances.

Early Minutes

A synopsis of each of the seven unprinted minutes was given in the reports of this Committee, but now we are happy to report that through the efforts of Conference Secretary Rowland Aspinall and Mr. Charles W. Evans the minutes covering the first decade of our Conference have been printed quite fully and made up into one volume. The Methodist appointments prior to the formation of the Conference are included by courtesy of Dr. Roy Bird Cook. This makes a valuable starting point in compiling lists of pastoral succession in individual churches. The cost of this publication should be realized from the small edition issued for historical purposes.

Respectfully submitted,

CONFERENCE COMMITTEE ON METHODIST HISTORY,

Wm. Burdette Mathews,
Chairman.

The net income from our investments during the past Conference year amounted to $9,132, an increase of $2,088 over the preceding Conference year.

S. B. Hart, Secretary-Treasurer.

PERMANENT FUND COMMISSION

First, we request Bishop Leonard to appoint S. B. Hart as Executive Secretary and Treasurer for the ensuing Conference year, salary and expenses to be the same as last year.

Second, we ask the Conference to appoint Fred M. Morris for a term of two years and J. A. Greenlee for a term of three years as members of the Permanent Fund Commission.

J. E. Scott, Secretary.

DISPOSITION OF PROPERTY

Fairmont, West Virginia, September 7, 1939

At the meeting of the Committee appointed by the West Virginia Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church to study the plans submitted by the Quarterly Conference of the Adamston Charge and the Quarterly Conference of the Westmiford Charge; these plans were carefully considered and the Committee recommends the following:

1.—That the monies from the sale of the Coburns Creek Church property amounting to approximately $186.00 be turned over to the treasurer of the West Virginia Conference of the Methodist Church.

2.—That the treasurer of the Conference be instructed to pay to the trustees of the Sycamore Church of the West Milford Charge the sum of $75.00.

3.—That the balance of the said amount be invested by the treasurer of the Conference in productive investment, and placed in the hands of the West Virginia Wesleyan College for safe keeping.

(Signed) Paul L. Flanagan

Thos. M. Zumbrunnen

L. C. Harris.

MINUTES OF THE WEST VIRGINIA CONFERENCE
DEACONESS BOARD

The West Virginia Conference Deaconess Board held their regular meeting at First Church, Fairmont, September 7th, at one-thirty o'clock. Dr. H. C. Howard, the president, was present and presided. The meeting was opened with prayer by Rev. Musgrave. The following members were present: Dr. H. C. Howard; Rev. P. Z. Musgrave; Rev. W. R. Eskew; Rev. R. O. Phillips; Nellie Stevens; Lillian B. Ellis; Edna Stephan; Mae Strickler; Sophia Fetzner; Esther Jane Bucke; Kathryn E. Esterline and Rena M. Crawford.

The secretary marked the roll of members present. Dr. Howard was reelected president of the Board; the other officers were reelected for another year. Miss Bucke was elected a member on the Committee of Promotion and Deaconess Work. The same members on the other committees were reelected.

The secretary was instructed to request the transfer of Miss Lillian B. Ellis from the Newark Conference. The Secretary was also instructed to request the transfers of Esther Jane Bucke and Kathryn E. Esterline, Probationers, from the St. Louis Conference. The secretary received the request for the transfers of Beatrice Green to the Ohio Conference and Anna Zenkovich to the Nebraska Conference, the secretary was instructed to send these transfers. On motion of Rev. Musgrave, Miss Strickler was recommended to the Board of Hospitals, Homes and Deaconess Work, regarding retirement.

The standing of each Deaconess was approved by the Board. The appointments of the Deaconess and Probationers to their fields of work as read by the secretary, were recommended to Bishop Leonard for his approval.

The secretary was instructed to write to Dr. Davis, expressing their appreciation of the Deaconess Board for his helpfulness and cooperation in our Conference work; also to Miss Strickler for her many years of faithful service in Deaconess work.

It was suggested that the secretary write to the North East Ohio Conference Deaconess Board regarding the transfer of Berniece O. Schoolcraft, to that Conference.

The meeting adjourned with a closing prayer by Rev. R. O. Phillips.

Rena M. Crawford,
Secretary of West Virginia Conference
Deaconess Board.

SUPPLEMENTAL REPORT To REPORT OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE On PUBLISHING OLD UNPRINTED MINUTES
Of The
WEST VIRGINIA CONFERENCE, METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH

Upon order of the Conference for a definite statement of cost and sale of books, we submit the following facts:

Number of Copies of Minutes published	112
Books in hands of Committee	54
Original contract with printers	$ 200.00
Additional cost of extra pages	50.00
Expense of Committee	24.50
Total Cost	$ 274.50

Received from sale of books	$ 86.00
Received from Conference Minute Fund ..	88.59
Received from Jos. VanSickle on "Cents" Fund	38.43	213.02
Balance due Publishers	50.00
Balance due Committee	11.48	61.48

We urge the pastors of the Conference to realize their obligation in authorizing this indebtedness and to take up the remaining copies; which would enable the Committee to pay the debt in full.

We recommend that the balance of cash in the hands of the Conference Treasurer, Joseph VanSickle, which is the accumulation of cents reported in pastors' reports to the Treasurer but not published in the printed minutes of the Conference, be applied on any final indebtedness of this Special Publishing Committee.

CHARLES W. EVANS,
ARTHUR LAZENBY,

TRIBUTES

PHILIP YEAGER DeBOLT

Philip Yeager DeBolt was born near Sistersville in Tyler County, September 28, 1872, the son of Philip Yeager DeBolt and Elizabeth (Flesher) DeBolt. He died at Huntington, March 27, 1938, age 65.

Brother DeBolt attended schools in the Sistersville area and was graduated from Fairmont State Teachers College. He taught school at Fairmont and at New Martinsville and became principal of a school at New Martinsville. He was called to the work of the Church and studied at Mt. Lake Park. After his ordination he was assigned to Guyandotte in 1909. His first pastorage extended over a five-year period. In 1911 he married Ida Amos of Fairmont who became closely identified with the work of the Church. She died in 1914.

In 1917 Dr. DeBolt married Mrs. Gertrude Adams Douthit of Huntington. They served at Chapline Street, Coveington, Clendennin, St. Andrew's and Moundsville First Church. Dr. DeBolt then served as Superintendent of the Huntington District and finally he returned to Guyandotte. In the meantime Mrs. DeBolt had become quite ill; she died in September, 1937 during the Guyandotte pastorate.

Brother DeBolt is survived by two sisters, Nora and Frances DeBolt of Sistersville.

He was thorough and systematic in his work. In the six years that he was Superintendent of the Huntington District he had an almost perfect record of visiting every charge of the District once every quarter. Brother DeBolt will be remembered for his straightforwardness and sincerity.

SAMUEL JAMES COTTON

Samuel James Cotton was born in Halifax, Yorkshire, England, December 13, 1854, the son of Rev. Thomas and Mary (Yoxall) Cotton. He died at McMechen, W. Va., March 16, 1938, aged 83. Brother Cotton came to the United States as did his father's family. His father was one of the pioneer preachers of the West Virginia Conference.

Brother Cotton received his education in the schools of Mississippi and became a Member of the Mississippi Conference of the Church, South and served in that Conference from about 1883 to 1859. He then came to West Virginia and served Parkersburg Circuit, Charleston First Church, Moundsville First Church, Morgantown District (Superintendent), Terra Alta, Seventh Avenue (Huntington), McMechen, Glendale and Wallace.

He married twice. His first wife was Emma Hopper, a daughter of Alexander and Catherine Hopper. They were married at DeKalb, Mississippi, April 2, 1876. After her death he married Frances Parks at Kingwood on February 22, 1899. Brother Cotton had eight children: three girls, Mrs. Sam Tefft, Mrs. Ralph Rinard, Mrs. Martin Tack; and five sons, Thomas, James, Frank, George and Henry Cotton.

Brother Cotton died suddenly at McMechen at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Charles Tefft.

Funeral services were held at the McMechen Church by the pastor, Minor Winan Sprague, and the Superintendent, Charles G. Stater. Burial was at Parkersburg.

The following poem was written by Brother Cotton:

THE DEPARTING SPIRIT

When I come to Jordan's river,
And its waters close around,
O, may I be found forever
Trusting, trusting in His wounds.
Death may conquer, death may sever
Kindred, friends, and life so dear,
But it never can, no, never
Pluck me from my Savior's care.
How we fear the dreadful monster
Who with stealthy steps draws near.
Yet, our Captain came to conquer
Death with all its slavish fear.
So we'll shout aloud Hosannah,
Glory to the bleeding Lamb,
Jesus saves us from the horror
Of a death we need to shun.
Shun that death which lasts forever,
Long as countless ages roll.
Worms and fire must be the nether
Doom of every guilty Soul.
O, my Soul then shout triumphant,
In thy Savior's mighty power, He,
He has saved thee, sing exultant,
In life's closing, parting hour.
Death will bring us to the portals,
Of the Spirit world on high,

To the mansions of Immortals,
Where they loud Hosannahs cry.
Day and night they sing His praises,
Day and night they bless His name;
No night there to interfere with
Those who sing unto the Lamb.
Loved ones there shall shout us welcome,
Those who have gone on before,
O, how joyful is the anthem
On that blissful, shining shore.
Yes, we see them glad in raiment,
Pure and white as snowflakes are,
And upon their heads all radiant,
Golden crowns with many a star.

MILLARD FILLMORE COMPTON

Millard Fillmore Compton was born April 5, 1856 at Fetterman, now a part of Grafton, West Virginia. He was the son of Henry and Ruth Hardman Compton. Death came at Moundsville on March 9, 1939 at the age of 82. One brother, William, became a minister in the New York East Conference. Others in the family were Charles, Marcellus, Harry, and Mrs. Jeffreys of Washington, D. C.

In his youth Brother Compton served the Moundsville and Marshall Circuit. Throughout his life he preserved and cherished the saddlebags that he used in those days. Here he met and later married Mary Tomlinson, daughter of Alfred and Drusilla Morris Tomlinson. The year was 1883.

Brother Compton attended and graduated from Allegheny College, Meadville, Penna., then went to Drew Seminary for three years.

He served South Brooklyn, Madison Street and Willets Street in New York City; Freeport, Long Island; Port Chester, N. Y.; and Old John Street in New York City. The last is the oldest Methodist Church in the United States and is commonly called "The Mother Church of American Methodism."

The Comptons moved to West Virginia and served Charleston, Morgantown and Moundsville First Churches. Morgantown First Church was built while the Comptons were there. After Moundsville came the superintendency of the Wheeling District, and after that, retirement. But in his retirement Dr. Compton was quite active especially as President of the Moundsville Camp Meeting Association. He taught a large Men's Bible Class in Moundsville First Church.

Funeral services were conducted by the minister of the Church, John Edwin Hanifan, together with James E. Scott, Charles G. Stater and L. E. Ressegger. The body was buried in the Greenlawn Cemetery at Moundsville.

Brother Compton was a man of ability and a forceful man in the pulpit.

AMOS SANFORD ARNETT

Amos Sanford Arnett was born near Fairmont October 2, 1856, the son of Thomas and Harriet Jones Arnett.

For nine years prior to becoming a minister he was a public school teacher. He attended the 1884 session of the West Virginia Conference held in Buchannon, and accepted an appointment as a supply to the Pine Grove Circuit which then included almost half of Wetzel County.

At the 1885 session of the Conference, he was admitted on trial and was assigned to the Friendsville Charge.

Besides the two charges just named, he served the following: Brandonville, Summersville, Winifred, Central City, (Huntington) Davis, Elberon, (now St. Andrews Parkersburg) Salem, Harrisville, Glendale, and Adamston.

For six years he was Presiding Elder in Southern West Virginia (New River District). During this time twenty-five churches and eight parsonages were built in his district. In taking care of his work, he traveled approximately 4000 miles a year on horseback.

He was a Field man and Assistant Superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League for two years.

While pastor of the Glendale church, he served as Chaplain of the State Penitentiary.

He also served as Conference Treasurer.

Brother Arnett died in Salem on Saturday, May 27, 1939, after a brief illness. He is survived by his widow and John Thomas Arnett, a son, three daughters, Mrs. Ruby Graham of Cumberland, Md., Mrs. Opal Campbell of Clarksburg, and Mrs. Iva Virginia Beavers of Grafton. A sister, Mrs. Virginia Gooch lives at Mannington.

Services were conducted at our church in Salem by the pastor, Paul L. Flanagan, assisted by O. E. Elkins, E. F. Drumel of the Baptist Church, and H. L. Koontz of the United Brethren Church.

Burial was made in the Salem Odd Fellows Cemetery.

The Salem Church will greatly miss him, where he has been very active in every part of the church life since his retirement in 1916.

He was a real helper to his pastor, and faithful to every trust.

PAUL L. FLANAGAN

REVEREND E. GRANT HUTCHINSON

Emanuel Grant Hutchinson, son of Francis and Matilda Hutchinson, was born near Wise, Virginia, May 29, 1866. He was educated in the public schools of Wise County; attended Clintwood High School, Gladeville College, and the University of Chattanooga.

Reverend Hutchinson was licensed to preach the Gospel of Jesus Christ at Wise, Virginia in 1883. He joined the Old Virginia Conference the same year and was appointed to his first charge, the Taswell Circuit. After rewarding pastorates on Washington Circuit, Bigstone Gap and Glendale, he was appointed to First Church Roanoke at the spring conference of 1897.

In the fall of 1897 he was stricken with a severe case of typhoid fever. Following an illness of two months, he was ordered by his physician to seek a dryer climate. Acting upon his physician's advice, he moved to Deadwood, South Dakota. Here he did missionary work among the gold miners. Seeing the need of a ministry to the miners, he secured the use of a dance hall for Sunday services. He organized a Sunday School, and later organized a class which developed into what is now Trinity Methodist Church.

He returned to Wise, Virginia in 1898, and was married to Sarah Greear. Immediately following his marriage to Miss Greear, he was transferred to the Nebraska Conference where he served pastorates at O'Neil and Tilden. In the fall of 1902 he again returned to Virginia as pastor of his home church in Wise.

From this pastorate he was appointed Presiding Elder and placed in the Abington District. Following the division of the Virginia Conference, he was named Presiding Elder of Roanoke District of the Holston Conference. Because of the constant exposure that was destroying his health, he asked to be taken off the district in 1909, and was appointed to the East Chattanooga Church. Here he contracted malaria, and a change of climate became necessary. He came to the Aurora charge in October, 1910. His health still being poor, he took the supernumerary relation and moved to the Ozark Mountains in Arkansas in November, 1911. Here he spent seven years.

At the request of Dr. A. Moore, he returned to the Aurora Charge in February, 1919 and served there until 1921. There followed then pastorates at Bayard, Summersville, Junior, Philippi Circuit, and the Boulder-Century charge.

Reverend Hutchinson retired from the ministry in 1930. Since that time he made his home with his sons, Frank, Grant, and James. When he realized the end was near, he asked to be taken to the home of his daughter, Mrs. Iret Ashby, near the place where he wanted to be laid to rest.

Following the tragic death of his grandson, Jesse Grant Ashby, he failed rapidly and passed quietly and beautifully to his reward on the morning of July 18, 1939.

He leaves his widow and five children: Mrs. Iret Ashby, Crellin, Md.; Thomas C. Hutchinson, Detroit, Mich.; Frank B. Hutchinson, Syracuse, N. Y.; E. Grant Hutchinson, Jr., Morgantown, W. Va.; and James P. Hutchinson, Morgantown, W. Va.

As a superintendent, he loved his preachers; as a pastor, he loved his people and his brothers in the work. Although handicapped always by poor health, he lived nobly, loved sincerely, and served unselfishly the Christ he knew as Saviour and Lord. He leaves to carry on the work he loved so much some seventy men who answered the call of the ministry under his preaching.

"He was a good man and his works do follow him."

"Large was his bounty, and his soul sincere;

Heaven did a recompense as largely send:

He gave to Mis'ry all he had, a tear,

He gained from Heaven ('twas all he wished) a friend."

FRANK SUMNER TOWNSEND

Frank Sumner Townsend, son of William and Susan (Capron) Townsend, was born at East Greenwich, R. I., April 19, 1857 and died March 25, 1939 at Ten McLane Avenue, Morgantown, W. Va. He was baptized by immersion and received as a full member of the Methodist Episcopal Church, June 5, 1870. In 1876 he graduated from East Greenwich Academy, the Seminary of the New England Southern Conference. After teaching school for several years and studying law for a short time he was licensed to preach in 1879. Soon after this he entered Wesleyan University, Middletown, Connecticut from which he graduated in June 1885. In addition to his A. B. he received from his alma mater the degrees of A. M. in 1888 and D. D. in 1921. He also received the degree of D. D. from West Virginia Wesleyan in 1915.

Dr. Townsend was admitted to the New York East Conference on trial in 1885, having been ordained the year before as a Local Deacon by Bishop Foster. In 1889 he was ordained as an elder by the same bishop. He served as a pastor in the New York East Conference for twelve years and during part of this period was Registrar of the Conference Board of Examiners. During his membership in this conference he was chairman of the committee which prepared the system of conference examinations afterwards adopted by the whole church.

In 1897 he transferred to the West Virginia Conference. Since then he filled the following pastorates: First Church, Parkersburg; First Church, Buckhannon; First Church, Huntington; New Martinsville; Zane Street, Wheeling; Kingwood. From 1910 to 1915 he was superintendent of Ronceverte District. From 1922 to 1928, the year of his retirement, he was Secretary of Conference Claimants Permanent Fund. For many years Dr. Townsend was a trustee of West Virginia Wesleyan College. He was also active in other aspects of the educational work of the church, being Chairman of the Board of Examiners of the West Virginia Conference from 1900 to 1910 and from 1916 to 1920. He was the founder of the Pittsburgh Area Summer School of Theology and served as its Dean in 1922-1924. He represented his conference at the General Conference in Saratoga in 1916 and was a member of the General Conference Commission on Courses of Study.

Dr. Townsend was a writer of high ability and possessed an exceptional degree of literary insight and appreciation. His teacher of English at Wesleyan was the brilliant Caleb T. Winchester whom Woodrow Wilson, once his colleague, characterized as "the foremost English teacher in America". During the rest of his life Dr. Townsend nobly exemplified the Winchesterian tradition. He could have said with James Russell Lowell, "I am a bookman". Few men have found greater joy in books. During the years of his retirement he was frequently seen on the street between his home and the library of West Virginia Wesleyan carrying a basket of books. He was, however, not merely an assimilator but a creator as well. Scores of articles from his pen appeared in various papers and reviews. His Novel, "Hugh Graham: A Tale of the Pioneers" has been recognized as a work of distinction by competent critics.

In Dr. Townsend was to be found the sturdy strength of his native New England. And along with the high principles of the Puritan there was a native kindliness which suffused his whole personality. In thinking of him one is reminded of these words from the Quaker poet, whom he loved so well:

"Hold fast your Puritan heritage,
But let the free thought of the age
Its light and hope and sweetness add
To the stern faith the fathers had."

He grew old sweetly, and as the shadows of the evening fell athwart his sky he found sustenance and strength in the power of Gospel which he had preached for more than a half century.

In 1885 he was married to Hattie Alice Sage, who died in 1934. He is survived by two children, Grace Elizabeth, now Mrs. Forrest W. Stempe of Morgantown, and Arthur Sage of Cleveland, Ohio. His funeral was held in the First Methodist Church, Buckhannon and was in charge of the pastor, Bascom T. Trevey. The address was delivered by James W. Engle. Others who took part in the service were Roy McCuskey, J. Elbert Wells, Ralph C. Brown and the writer.

Lewis H. Chrisman.

GILBERT VERNON FITZWATER

(Accepted Supply)

Gilbert Vernon Fitzwater was born at Enoch in Clay County, West Virginia, and died at Winona on May 10, 1939. He was a son of Benjamin Franklin Fitzwater and Juda Ann (Bragg) Fitzwater. A brother is John Elliott Fitzwater, U. S. Navy, Philippine Islands, a sister is Deborah (Fitzwater) Morrison, Mt. Lookout, Nicholas County. Brother Fitzwater studied in the public schools of Clay County and in Summer Normal Schools held in Clay and Nicholas Counties. He studied also a Law Course by Correspondence.

On October 14, 1911 at Clay Court House, Brother Fitzwater married Lula Sparks, daughter of David Jackson Sparks and Anna Frances (Jones) Sparks. They served Powelltown (1year), Elkhurst (2), Swiss (1) and Winona-Leander (6) and other work making a total of 13 years. Brother Fitzwater had been converted in a Primitive Baptist revival meeting but it was not until June 22, 1927 that he was licensed to preach. However, he had felt during the years that he ought to be a preacher.

He was ill for six months before he died and often spoke of going as though he anticipated a pleasant journey. His cheerfulness was conveyed to all who knew him.

The funeral service was held at Winona by David Ralph Dunn, Artie F. Shomo and Holly O. Shamblin. Burial was at Summersville.

Surviving are Mrs. Fitzwater together with ten children: Paul, Carl, Arthur, Virginia, David, Benjamin, Dale, Fay, Mary, Bell and Anna Lee.

CROSSING THE BAR

Sunset and evening star,
And one clear call for me!
And may there be no moaning of the bar,
When I put out to sea.

But such a tide as moving seems asleep,
Too full for sound and foam,
When that which drew from out the boundless deep
Turns again home.

Twilight and evening bell,
And after that, the dark!
And may there be no sadness of farewell,
When I embark;

For tho' from out our bourne of Time and Place
The flood may bear me far,
I hope to see my Pilot face to face
When I have crossed the bar.

—Alfred Tennyson.

MRS. JOHN BEDDOW

At the West Virginia Annual Conference at Point Pleasant, in the Fall of 1889, Bishop Joyce appointed John Beddow (his first appointment) to the Guyandotte Church Guyandotte District, now the Huntington District. The organist of that church was Miss Sallie M. White, younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. White. In the Pastor's second year, on February 2, 1891, he was married to this excellent young woman.

Mrs. Beddow's work was of the highest order in the various appointments which her husband served, as well as during the six years he was Superintendent of the Charleston District. She regularly attended all the Means of Grace, frequently presided at the organ, taught in the Sunday School, and worked in the Woman's Missionary Societies. Mrs. Beddow was never happier than when she was doing something to show her love for her church. While on the District how she loved to entertain the young, and sometimes discouraged, preachers in her home. After her demise, which occurred in a Charleston hospital, after two months illness, on January 21, 1939, quite a number of letters came from pastors telling of her happy home and how they were helped while being entertained therein. For nearly forty-eight years she was surely a queen in the various parsonages in which she lived. "Her children arise up and call her blessed: Her husband also, and he praiseth her."

A columnist of one of the papers in a city where the Beddows lived wrote: "With deepest regret we speak of the passing of Mrs. Sallie M. Beddow. Kindly, loving, and most sympathetic, Mrs. Beddow was a lady of the 'Old School'. She knew the struggles preachers had a quarter of a century ago. Perhaps it was because of her devotion and understanding and courage that John Beddow is so highly respected in the Church."

The funeral service was in Charleston, West Virginia, conducted by District Superintendent Dunn, assisted by Reverends P. D. Fisher, J. S. Thornburg, and T. G. Fletcher. The interment was in Spring Hill Cemetery, Huntington, the committal service being read by District Superintendents Dunn and Miles.

Besides her husband she is survived by her two sons, Dr. G. R. Beddow, and Dr. H. M. Beddow, and daughter, Miss Gladys W. Beddow, all of Charleston, West Virginia.

MARY (TOMLINSON) COMPTON

Mary Tomlinson was born September 30, 1854, the daughter of Alfred Tomlinson and Drusill (Morris) Tomlinson. The latter was the daughter of J. W. Morris, first clerk of Marshall County. Mrs. Compton's great-grandfather, James Tomlinson, was the first white man to settle in Grave Creek Valley.

She married to Millard F. Compton in May, 1883, the month he graduated from Drew Seminary. He joined the New York East Conference and there they served St. Paul's in Brooklyn, Madison Street, Willett Street and Attorney Street in New York City, Freeport, Long Island, Port Chester and Old John Street, the mother church of American Methodism. Transferred to the West Virginia Conference they were stationed at Charleston, Morgantown and Parkersburg. Mr. Compton then served as Superintendent of the Wheeling District. Together in fifty-five years they built thirteen churches and parsonages, among them the noble stone churches in Morgantown and Parkersburg.

On December 23, 1937 Mrs. Compton was injured while riding through The Narrows between Wheeling and Moundsville. The car was hit by a beer truck and the driver of the truck later convicted of driving a car while intoxicated. After many days in the hospital Mrs. Compton seemed to be recovering but March 10 was seized by a heart attack and died on March 31, 1938.

Mrs. Compton is survived by her husband and two sons, Henry T., of Moundsville and Dr. A. F. Compton of Warren, Ohio.

Funeral services were held at Moundsville by L. E. Ressegger and John E. Hanifan.

VIRGINIA (LAMBERT) KEPLER

Virginia Lambert was born at Romney, West Virginia, January 13, 1853, the daughter of Abraham Lambert and Sarah (Brown) Lambert. On November 8, 1870 she married The Reverend George W. Kepler, son of Benjamin Kepler and Susannah (Stonder) Kepler. The ceremony was at Keyser, W. Va., and the service was read by Rev. Mr. Hoffman.

Mrs. Lambert served the following appointments with her husband: Sandyville, Mason and Clifton, Newburg, Oakland, Md., Davis, Cameron, Williamstown, Elberon (Parkersburg), Point Pleasant, West Union, Middlebourne, Wallace, Thomas. Mr. Lambert was then Secretary of the Permanent Fund which position he held until the time of his death.

Mrs. Lambert died November 24, 1937 at the home of her granddaughter, Mrs. F. B. Shinn, St. Michaels, Maryland where she together with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Sharp of Sistersville were visiting.

Mrs. Kepler had an unbounded faith in Christ and was always happy in trusting Him.

Funeral services were held in Sistersville and the body was buried in Williamstown where the body of Brother Kepler had been buried.

RESOLUTIONS:

Resolution of Intention to Dissolve the Western Virginia Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South.

WHEREAS, the Methodist Episcopal Church, the Methodist Episcopal Church, South and the Methodist Protestant Church, have now joined each with the other under a Plan of Union to constitute a United Church known as The Methodist Church; and

WHEREAS, pursuant to Article 8 of the Plan of Union, the properly constituted delegates by action of the Uniting Conference held in Kansas City, State of Missouri, on May 8, 1939, established and bounded a successor Conference to include the State of West Virginia.

WHEREAS, the Uniting Conference duly constituted by the three uniting denominations instructed and authorized all their annual Conferences to close their affairs and dissolve prior to December 31, 1939.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Western Virginia Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, assembled in its eighty-sixth session at Fairmont, West Virginia, this 7th day of September, 1939, does hereby through and by adoption of this resolution discontinue and dissolve this aforesaid Western Virginia Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, as an ecclesiastical body, said dissolution to become finally effective, however, only when all its effective members and all of its superannuated members shall have been duly recognized as legal members of a legally constituted successor Annual Conference, organized in harmony with said Plan of Union.

Transfer of Titles of Local Churches and Other Property of the Western Virginia Annual Conference to the Proper Successor Conference.

WHEREAS, the Western Virginia Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, has, by virtue of the Unification of the Methodist Episcopal, the Methodist Episcopal Church, South and the Methodist Protestant Church, declared its intention to dissolve as an ecclesiastical body, and

WHEREAS, there are many important matters involving titles and equities in property in our local charges, and belonging to said annual conference, the adjustment of which will call for careful consideration and loyal cooperation over a considerable period of time, and will require careful checking for legal and accounting accuracy,

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Boards of Trustees of the local Churches, all local church corporations, and/or other organizations within the bounds and under the jurisdiction of the Western Virginia Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South holding property of whatsoever sort, real, personal and/or mixed, are hereby authorized and instructed to take all necessary steps at the earliest possible date, by legal conveyance, by amendment to articles of incorporation, constitutions or by-laws, and/or by any other necessary legal process, to bring such assets into the possession of or under the jurisdiction of the proper successor organizations of the Methodist Church; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that a Board of Trustees, appointed by the Conference of the West Virginia Annual Conference of the Methodist Church be requested to assume responsibility for securing all such necessary transfers, and to do any and all things necessary to vest in or properly relate to the said West Virginia Annual Conference of the Methodist Church, or its subsidiaries, all the rights, titles and equities represented by the assets of the local churches, corporations and/or other organizations above referred to.

WEST VIRGINIA CONFERENCE

To The Western Virginia Conference,
Methodist Episcopal Church, South,
Fairmont, West Virginia.

Resolution Authorizing the Certification of the Western Virginia Annual Conference Members to the Successor Annual Conference of the Methodist Church.

WHEREAS, the consummation of the Plan of Union by which the Methodist Episcopal Church, The Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and the Methodist Protestant Church have united to form the Methodist Church, has made necessary the dissolution of the Western Virginia Annual Conference as an ecclesiastical body when the successor conference occupying the territory covered by said Western Virginia Conference shall have been organized in harmony with the Plan of Union, and

WHEREAS, it is necessary that the successor conference, shall have a properly authenticated list of the members of the said Western Virginia Annual Conference who are eligible to membership in the successor conference;

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Secretary of the Western Virginia Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South be and is hereby directed to prepare and deliver such a list to the Secretary of the successor conferences, certifying the membership and standing of the ministerial members of the said successor conference under and in harmony with the legislation of the Uniting Conference of the three aforesaid denominations, which met in Kansas City, State of Missouri, April 30-May 10, 1939; and that the said certificate shall indicate the order, standing and relation of the said members as follows: (1) The effective elders and deacons; (2) the superannuated members; (3) the supernumerary members; and (4) those Ministers in the admission on trial class. He is directed to certify all superannuated members of the said Western Virginia Annual Conference to membership in the said successor Conferences, such certification to state clearly that it is given pending the report of the Distributing Committee, established by the legislation of the Uniting Conference and given final jurisdiction in the allocation of the conference membership of superannuates. And he is further directed to certify all local preachers whose license are now effective in the Western Virginia Annual Conference.

AND, BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Western Virginia Annual Conference hereby request the presiding Bishop to attest with his signature the above authorized certification.

W. W. PEELE

I hereby certify that at a meeting of the members of the Western Virginia Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, duly called to meet at Fairmont, West Virginia, and held on the 5th to 10th of September, 1939, at which said meeting..... members were present and acting throughout, the above resolution was adopted, members voting affirmatively, and members voting negatively, and said resolution is duly recorded as part of the official journal of the said Western Virginia Annual Conference.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and fixed the seal of the conference this ... day of....., 1939.

The time was extended for the completion of the work.

Notices were read and the following program was given.

CLOSING SESSION OF THE CONFERENCE

Hymn No. 164 was sung and addresses were made by W. M. Given and B. P. Taylor. The Conference then adjourned sine die with the benediction by F. S. Pollitt.

WEST VIRGINIA CONFERENCE

REPORT OF AUDIT—CONFERENCE TREASURER.

Fairmont, West Virginia,
September 7th, 1939.

This is to certify that I have carefully checked the books of the Conference Treasurer, together with the report compiled therefrom, and find them correct. The Treasurer's balance as shown agrees with bank balance after considering outstanding checks. The books are well and accurately kept.

Respectfully submitted,
GEORGE S. SNODGRASS, Auditor.

CONFERENCE HISTORICAL SOCIETY

We are asking the Conference for two things:

1. The continuance of an organization such as we have through which may be completed the history of the achievements of these fruitful years of our existence. To this end a modest sum of money will be necessary.

2. We wish to call attention to the sad neglect of the graves of a number of our pioneer preachers and ask that a committee be appointed to find their number and location and estimate the amount of money necessary to provide a modest marker for each.

W. L. REID, Chairman.
JOHN W. HOLLISTER, Secretary.

BOARD OF CHRISTIAN LITERATURE

The Board of Christian Literature is again encouraged to note in the Annual Report from our Publishing House "a healthy increase in the circulation of our Church School Publications including Cokesbury books and the Christian Advocates."

From the profits of our Publishing House our Conference Claimants will receive this year $1,241.72.

Let us not tire of appealing to our people to keep themselves informed through the use of Christian Literature and to make constant use of our devotional guides.

A. E. TULLOH, Chairman

BOARD OF FINANCE

From a report received from O. P. Smith of Russell, Ky., treasurer of the proceeds from the Beckett endowment properties in Ashland, Ky., we glean the fact that these properties have produced this year a gross income of $2,017.35. Of this amount certain sums were spent for needed repairs and a balance of a few hundred dollars remain in the hands of the treasurer. $500.00 of the proceeds were remitted to the General Board of Finance. This Board recommends the election by this Conference of a Committee on adjustments to act in conjunction with a like committee which has been elected by the Kentucky Conference, to adjust equities in all properties owned by this Conference and located in the Ashland District, now of the Kentucky Conference, which properties are held in trust for the Superannuate preachers of the Western Virginia Conference, and in which the Ashland District still holds equities.

We also recommend that this aforesaid adjusting Committee be authorized to act in conjunction with a like committee from the former M. E. Church and the former Methodist Protestant Church in adjusting equities with which the three united Conferences may be concerned, and having to do with Superannuate Endowment funds and properties.

The Board recommends the election of W. M. Given, J. A. Wright and C. C. Lambert as members of this Committee.

The Board received the following amounts for distribution:

Methodist Publishing House	$1,241.72
General Board	1,502.84
Conference Collections	6,648.88
Balance as of last year	661.51
Total	$10,061.95

Of this amount $350.00 was set aside as a necessitous fund, leaving a net total for regular distribution of $9,711.95. We recommend the distribution of these funds as follows:

DISBURSEMENTS:

We recommend the following apportionments:

Cropper, representing the General Board of Church Extension; who have so greatly blessed us with their presence, sermons and addresses.

3. Our thanks go out to C. L. Harshbarger, Conference Treasurer, Mrs. Bertha Ball, his Secretary, W. I. Canter, Secretary and W. M. Given, Assistant, and to W. S. Overstreet, Statistical Secretary, and his staff, for their splendid spirit in bearing the heavy burden of the detail work of the Conference.

4. We are grateful to Reverend C. H. Kelley, Pastor Host and his family, to Reverend H. W. Ware, District Superintendent Host, to the men and the Women's Missionary Society of the Central Methodist Church (formerly Billingsley Memorial Church) of Fairmont for their warm hearted hospitality in entertaining the 86th and last session of the Western Virginia Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South.

5. We extend our sincere thanks and appreciation to the Fairmont newspapers for the publicity that they have so freely given to the work of the Conference.

6. We extend our sincere appreciation to the Police Department of the city of Fairmont for the parking courtesies extended to our delegates to this Annual Conference.

7. We are deeply grateful to the Boy Scouts of this area for the many kindnesses shown our delegates and friends during the Conference.

8. And finally our hearts turn to Almighty God in thanks for the High Christian fellowship we have experienced in this great Annual Conference, for a United Methodism, for the victories won and advancement made in the extension of the Kingdom.

BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION

WHEREAS, the Ashland District of the former Methodist Episcopal Church, South has been transferred by the Uniting Conference and made a part of the Kentucky Conference of the Methodist Church, and

WHEREAS, the Western Virginia Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South has a Conference Board of Church Extension loan fund amounting to $4,326.96, which fund is held and administered by the General Board of Church Extension, and

WHEREAS, the Ashland District has an equity in this fund

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the General Board of Church Extension of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South be, and it hereby is, instructed to transfer to the Conference Board loan fund of the Kentucky Conference that proportion of the funds now held for the Western Virginia Conference due the Ashland District on the basis of membership, or, 14.8% of the sum of $4,326.96, amounting to the sum of $597.12.

The Board reports that the cause of Church Extension has prospered more than usual this Conference Year. Many churches of the Conference have provided for embarrassing debts that have been casting their shadows over the congregation for years. In these great debt-paying campaigns, as well as in the building of new churches and parsonages, your Board of Church Extension has rendered valuable assistance.

BOARD OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATIONReport No. 1

During the conference year our work has been carried on in co-operation with the M. E. and M. P. Churches.

Among our numerous outstanding achievements we list the following activities as a part of the total program:

90 Vacation Church Schools were reported to September 1, with an approximate enrollment of 6,537, which represents a substantial increase over last year.

148 Training opportunities were provided, with reported enrollment of 2,624; credits issued 1,181.

The Young People's Assembly had an enrollment of 197 Young People and their leaders. The Intermediate Assembly enrolled 190 Intermediates and workers. More than 5,200 young people and leaders attended the Youth Crusade Rallies.

83 persons were enrolled in the Children's Workers' Camp. Seven City wide Children's Workers' Meetings were held, reaching approximately 600 workers. Through 24 Vacation School institutes, 70 Group Meetings, and the training opportunities provided the work for children was promoted throughout the conference.

We are pleased to report continued progress in the matter of missionary education, and an increase in the amount of missionary giving. In the beginning of the quadrennium the total amount contributed was $4,727.29. This year it will be more than $6,600.00.

We appreciate the co-operation and response on the part of pastors and people in the effort to increase church school membership. We are pleased to report a net gain of 3,092 for the year.

The President of Morris Harvey College reports the closing of the best year in the history of the Institution.

We express our appreciation of the excellent work carried on by the Conference and District Staffs, and face the future with faith in the fundamental place of christian education in our enlarged Methodism.

BOARD OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

Report No. 2

RECOMMENDATIONS AND NOMINATIONS

I—Recommendations:

1. That we endeavor to conserve all the values of our present denominational program by promoting and observing our special days and emphases until such time as the General Conference presents a unified program.

2. That we continue to use the literature provided by the Board of the former Methodist Episcopal Church, South, until a common literature is provided.

3. That Dr. L. Riggleman be appointed President of Morris Harvey College.

Dr. A. J. Walton be appointed Director of the Division of Extension and Promotion of the General Board of Christian Education.

R. J. Matheny be appointed Professor of Bible and Religious Education in Morris Harvey College.

4. That $900.00 be given to Morris Harvey College for additional and incidental expense, and that $300.00 be paid to the Staff members for additional expenses incurred during the year. These amounts to be paid out of the funds in hand.

5. That the following memorial be adopted:

WHEREAS, the Home and Foreign Missionary Enterprise has been used of God in the cultivation of the missionary spirit among our people; and

WHEREAS, it has been an outstanding movement for the extension of our church and educational program into rural and unreached areas; and

WHEREAS, its discontinuance would be a serious hindrance to the total educational and missionary program,

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the Western Virginia Annual Conference of the M. E. Church, South, does hereby respectfully request the West Virginia Annual Conference of the Methodist Church to Memorialize the General Conference to continue the financial and educational program of the Home and Foreign Missionary Enterprise as an integral part of the program of the United Church.

6. That the report of the Treasurer, when properly audited, be included in the Journal.

7. Whereas, the Western Virginia Conference in supporting Morris Harvey College has been observing College Day each year, asking each church to present the advantages and needs of the college and take an offering,

Therefore, in order to continue support for Morris Harvey College, we recommend that $10,000.00 be raised for Morris Harvey College during the Conference Year of 1939-40; that the amount be apportioned among the pastoral charges of the former M. E. Church, South, on the basis of 5% of the pastor's salary.

However, if a unified plan of college support be worked out for the new annual conference that each pastoral charge be asked to raise a sum equal to 5% of the pastor's salary, and that the amount thus raised be divided equally between Morris Harvey College and West Virginia Wesleyan.

II—Nominations:

We nominate the following persons as Trustees of Morris Harvey College: Robt. C. Booth, to fill the unexpired term of Dr. H. C. Clay resigned because he now resides in another jurisdiction; Judge A. P. Hudson, Dr. R. H. Murrill, A. Garnett Thompson, Dr. Joseph C. Hoffman, Dr. John H. Crowe, W. P. Eastwood, Dr. B. P. Taylor, H. P. Campbell, Vernon A. Cobb. We nominate as Honorary Trustees; Bishop U. V. W. Darlington, C. W. Thornburg, Bruce McDonald, H. L. Clay.

B P. TAYLOR, Chairman
GLENN W. STEWART, Acting Sec.

BOARD OF LAY ACTIVITIES

Soon after the adjournment of our last Annual Conference our Board prepared leaflets on "How Our Conference Dollar is Spent" and "Where the Benevolent Dollar Goes," these together with a pamphlet on the General Conference Benevolences were sent to the Presiding Elders and District and Associate Lay Leaders for distribution.

We have co-operated with Dr. Harry Denman in his program on personal Evangelism and paid for sending the publication on Evangelism "Tidings" to the pastors and Lay Leaders in our Conference.

From reports the observance of Laymen's Day was probably more generally observed this year than ever before. The topic "Adequate Support of the Ministry" was the topic for discussion and we earnestly hope that it has had good results.

Much work has been done by our Board, in co-operation with the Presiding Elders and Pastors in the holding of religious services in the Conference.

We take this opportunity, being our last report from our Board to the Western Virginia Conference, to express our thanks to the Presiding Elders, who have been a strong addition to our Board, in indispensable in our work, to the loyal and devoted pastors who have caught a vision of the part laymen can help in putting on the program of the church and to the faithful Charge and Church Leaders who have co-operated with the program of Lay Activities.

Memoirs

REV. J. B. F. YOAK

Rev. J. B. F. Yoak was born in Grantsville, Calhoun County, West Virginia, March 22, 1861, and passed on to the heavenly home July 4, 1939. He married Eliza Jane Jefferys in 1878, and their union was blessed with two sons and four daughters, all of whom are still living. Some years after the death of his first wife, he married Margaret Elizabeth Dyer of Webster Springs, W. Va., in the year 1913, and to this union was born one son and one daughter, both of whom are still living.

Brother Yoak was converted early in life and entered the Ministry of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South (now the United Methodist Church) at the age of 31 years, and was assigned to his first work in the Conference. He served the following Charges: St. George, Farmington, Garrison, Burnsville, Grayson, Milton, Webster Springs, Montgomery, Summersville, Buffalo, Rivesville, Philippi, Enterprise, Chatterroy, Man and Madison. He served the Prestonburg District as presiding Elder one term.

He was a good preacher and knew how to select and discuss such subjects as served to inform and inspire his hearers. He had a fine knowledge of the word of God. More than all else was the value he placed upon his christian experience. He knew the Lord, had heard his voice and walked in obedience to it.

In his younger days he was a fine gospel singer. Many were greatly moved under the power of gospel music as it was sung by him.

He loved the church, magnified its value as an organization, found great joy in portraying its teachings and was instrumental in receiving a great host into its membership. Many of those whom he received into the Church reached the home Eternal before he did, and doubtless were waiting to meet him with the song of triumph.

He was a good husband and father. He loved his family and poured his life out for their welfare. He found great joy in that two of his sons had given their lives to the ministry of the Church, and would carry on after he had gone on to Heaven. John and Robert are both members of this Conference and will go forth in the light of a christian father's influence, pointing the people to the Christ of Calvary as their father delighted in doing.

A memorial service was held in the Barboursville Church where he attended and which he supported liberally with his means, Dr. W. I. Canter and a number of other ministers assisting in the service. No less than one-fourth of the clerical membership of the Conference were present, with a host of people who loved him and will miss him.

Goodbye till we meet again.

A. M. MARTIN.

MRS. ADAM GIVEN

Mrs. Missouri Given, widow of Rev. Adam Given passed into the eternal life rejoicing in God's love June 16, 1939. She was born in Huntington, W. Va., April 10, 1850, the oldest child of Louise and Paul Harrison Davis. Being reared in a Christian home, she learned at an early age to love and respect the cause of Christ and His Kingdom.

On January 1, 1886 she was united in marriage to the Rev. Adam Given who was at that time pastor of the Wayne Circuit, a loyal member of the Western Virginia Conference, and was one who still lives in the hearts of those who knew him. This union was of brief duration as the Rev. Given passed to his reward in 1899. For the remaining years of her life she resided at the home of her brother Euphrates Davis at Bowen, West Virginia. During these years she was a loyal member of her Church and a faithful witness to the love of Jesus.

At her passing a light was extinguished here—a light that now shines in immortal beauty as she walks by the side of the loved one who died at his post while she was still a fullblown flower. Today they await the call of the trumpet, the release to eternal glory in the realm of the blessed.

After a memorial service held in Bowen Chapel by Rev. Arden P. Keyser, Rev. Henry Mullens and Rev. O. C. Martin her body was placed to rest in the Bowen Cemetery, Bowen, W. Va.

MRS. OWEN C. MARTIN.

MRS. PAULINE PENNINGTON SHEARER

Mrs. Pauline Pennington Shearer, widow of Rev. C. W. Shearer, former member of this Conference, passed to her rest after a short illness, at her home in Barboursville, W. Va., on July 13, 1939. She was born in Willard, Carter County, Kentucky on March 11, 1851, and grew to young womanhood in her Kentucky home and on October 14, 1868 she was united in marriage to Charles Wesley Shearer. To this union were born four sons and four daughters: Leonidas, Walter, Lovick P. and Frank, Elizabeth Fuller, Nancy, May and Lottie.

Her husband had been a local preacher in the Methodist Church since his young manhood but in 1871 he entered the Western Virginia Conference and this loyal woman began the life of an itinerant Methodist preacher's wife. Thrown upon her own resources by the passing of her husband she did not falter at misfortune, but took up the burden of caring for her family. She was able to put her children through school and college and to see them fitted for the responsibilities of life. She gave one son, Lovick P. to the Ministry, and he served his church worthily and well in this Conference and in the West and Northwest before his death, which occurred in San Francisco, Cal., in the year 1930.

Staunch in her convictions she was sympathetic and kind in her relation to neighbors and friends. Converted in early girlhood she joined the Methodist Episcopal Church, South in 1872 and remained a loyal and faithful member until she was transferred to the Church triumphant. The young men who were resident in her home during their college days will never forget her kindness and motherly advice. Many were the messages from distant parts of the globe as well as closer home in appreciation of her friendship to them.

Three children still live. Mrs. Frank Everly, Columbus, Ohio and Mrs. Frank Dorsey at home and Frank Shearer who is with the Pennsylvania Railroad of Columbus, Ohio. She was buried in the old cemetery in Barboursville beside her husband after appropriate services in her memory were conducted at the church. Rev. W. H. Foglesong delivered the sermon and was assisted in the service by A. M. Martin, C. A. Slaughter and her pastor, Rev. C. C. Lambert in charge.

May divine blessings be upon the children and grandchildren who are left to carry on the ideals of a good mother and a good woman.

C. A. SLAUGHTER

85th ANNUAL SESSION

of the

WEST VIRGINIA CONFERENCE

of the

METHODIST PROTESTANT CHURCH held at

FAIRMONT, WEST VIRGINIA

September 5 - 7, 1939.

HISTORICAL FOREWORD

In the City of Alleghany, Pa., September 20, 1854, the Pittsburgh Annual Conference met in regular session.

Among the most important transactions was the setting apart of all that part of the Conference lying in West Virginia, which was set off and formed into a Conference, to be known as the West Virginia Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church.

That year the Pittsburgh Conference elected two Presidents, one for the Pittsburgh Conference proper and the Rev. P. T. Laishly, D. D., for the newly formed West Virginia Conference.

REPORTS

PRESIDENT'S REPORT

To the West Virginia Annual Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church, assembled in the 85th and last session.

Dear Brethren and Sisters:

The activities and labors of another conference year are over and past and the record of our labors is indelibly written on the pages of time and cannot be erased. As much as we may desire to go back and correct a mistake or do better some task poorly done that privilege is denied us as time carries us on into the illimitable future before us. This session of our conference is significant because it is the last one we will ever enjoy together, as we are now situated. For eighty five years we have been meeting as a conference and parting with the hope of meeting again a year hence much as we are now assembled. That priviledge will also be denied us and we find ourselves surrounded by a new environment and confronted by new and strange conditions and experiences, as we pass into the new and larger conference and communion in to which the previous action of this conference as well as the action of our beloved church carries us.

As Methodist Protestants, we have learned to hear and heed the voice of the majority and with very few exceptions we will hold true to this time honored custom in the great emergency that confronts us now.

We are going forward, feeling that "He who has led us safely thus far will lead us on, and that this new experience for us, means the forward march of the hosts of Jehovah, and is in answer to the prayer of our Lord when he prayed 'that they all may be one.'"

We come in today from the fields of labor bearing evidences of both victory and defeat. For surely we would not be human if we had not experienced both. After all both have an important part in building a character that will withstand the trials and temptations common to all mankind.

We come today with evidences of toil and anxiety, of sickness and sorrow and of bereavement and heartaches through which we have passed on our respective fields. But we come with a vivid realization that in all these things God was with us, and that "all things work together for good to those who love the Lord."

We come today with a feeling of triumph and elation, knowing full well that our labors have not been "in vain in the Lord."

The spiritual condition of the church is normal or above. Some of the churches have experienced the greatest religious awakening in many years and as a result every department is going forward with new life, energy, and inspiration. Others have been struggling on in much the same way as in the past with a feeling of discouragement and defeat. But it is impossible to estimate the good that even a struggling church does in a community, and men and women who are laboring under difficult circumstances in their various communities to keep the church alive, certainly, are to be commended as good and faithful servants. The results of the labors of the pastors on the various fields will be discussed in their reports submitted to this conference and will be printed in the conference Journal, so it will not be necessary for me to burden your patience with a repetition of that in this report. The reports of the pastors on the various fields is an interesting study and discloses the fact that the "more abundant labors in the Lord" produce the greatest results.

On June 2nd death invaded our ranks and claimed Rev. Josiah Payne—Pastor of our Pennsboro Church. Rev. Payne was a valued member of this body. A member of the conference Faculty and an ex-president of the conference. We will miss his wise, safe and sane counsel.

Some of our members have been afflicted during the year but all have been able to resume their work for which we are thankful except Rev. Z. B. Bowen whose continued illness is the deep concern of the entire conference.

June 4.—Conducted the funeral of Rev. Josiah Payne assisted by Rev. B. M. Mitchell, Rev. G. H. Snyder, Rev. J. P. Turkelson and Rev. J. A. Selby

June 5.—Appointed Obituary committee for Rev. Payne.

June 10.—Released Rev. Howard Hileman from the Catawba Circuit.

June 20.—Met a committee in Charleston to arrange the Districts in the new W. Va. conference of the Methodist Church.

Aug. 31.—Met Bishop Leonard and District Superintendents in Fairmont.

I have visited all the charges in the conference except Bristol Mission, Camden-on-Gauley, Centralia-St. George and Renick.

Early in the conference year I sent a man to Camden-on-Gauley and he was informed that our people there were supporting the pastor of the M. E. Church, South, in that community and since union is here I thought it well to let that arrangement continue.

Also early in the conference year special arrangements were made with Dr. Jones—District Supt. of the Morgantown District of the M. E. Church by which the people of the St. George circuit were given pastoral care.

I am indebted to Rev. Reece Burns for filling two appointments for me on the Roanoke Charge while I was attending a meeting in Charleston called by Bishop Leonard. I am also indebted to Rev. Reece Burns for filling one appointment and to Rev. Birdsell Randolph for filling two on the Heaters Charge while I attended a committee meeting in Charleston to arrange the Districts in the New W. Va. conference. I returned in time to fill two appointments on each of the above named charges.

There has been the usual amount of repairing, painting and improving our church buildings and parsonages this year in spite of existing Economic conditions, which clearly indicates that many of our people are "seeking first the Kingdom of God."

Some of our people have been badly disturbed by the Union of the churches and are merely marking time until they see what happens when union becomes effective. Some of our people are fearing a wholesale closing of churches and a general merging of churches in close proximity to each other. But this can be done only when it is desired and effected by the local congregations. There are two distinct phases of Unification. One is physical and material. The other is spiritual and invisible. One deals with buildings and economy, the other with spirit and ideals. If we think of Union only in terms of material adjustments, we have a tangled mass of difficult problems before us, too difficult for us to solve. But if we think of union in terms of spirit and ideals, the problems of material adjustments will appear insignificant and unimportant, and we will go forward singing with the poet.

"We are not divided,
All one body we,
One in hope and doctrine,
One in Charity."

If the church today will lose sight of material values and give herself to the promotion of spiritual values and ideals, we may sing again with the poet.

"Crowns and thrones may perish,
Kingdoms rise and wane,
But the church of Jesus,
Constant will remain;
Gates of hell can never,
Gainst that church prevail;
We have Christ's own promise
And that cannot fail."

In view of the changed order that confronts us I desire to make only one recommendation, to this conference, and that is, that in the new conference that former Methodist Protestant ministers and Laymen may "Quit themselves like men and be strong" and prove themselves to be equal to the best in "Kingdom service."

In conclusion, I acknowledge with deepest gratitude, the goodness and blessings of the great Heavenly Father, the many kindnesses and courtesies shown us by pastors and people as we have traveled through the conference on business for our master.

Now unto Him who is able to keep you from falling and to present you faultless before the presence of His glory with exceeding joy.

To the only wise God our Savior, be glory and majesty, dominion and power, both now and forever.

Respectfully submitted,
J. E. BURNS, President.

REPORT ON OFFICIAL CHARACTER

Sept. 7, 1939

We, your committee on Official Character, submit the following report:

We recommend that the official character of all our ministers and probationers pass.

E. L. Arnold, Chairman
J. H. Hardesty, Secretary Committee.

BOARD OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

The Board of Christian Education of the West Virginia Conference met in its final session at Fairmont, West Virginia, September 6, 1939. All Business of the Board was considered and acted upon.

The financial accounts of the Board are in the hands of the Treasurer of the Conference. An examination of the accounts will show all bills paid and all matters are ready to turn over to the New Board of Education.

Frank L. Shaffer, President
S. G. Brown, Secretary.

FACULTY REPORT

The Conference faculty wishes to present the following report:

The faculty met in special session at the call of the Chairman, J. P. Turkelson, for a final meeting.

We recommend that Lewis Hill, Lenney E. Bee, Jr., and Donzel Wildey be recommended to the General Conference Board for Aid, provided they continue to attend their respective schools.

The final session was without the stimulating presence and wise, steady counsel of Brother Josiah Payne, who passed from labor to reward during the past year.

FACULTY.

SPECIAL REPORT ON ADJUSTMENTS

Whereas the West Virginia Annual Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church was a member of the General Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church and

Whereas the General Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church at its quadrennial session held at High Point, North Carolina, in the year 1936 adopted a plan of union with the Methodist Episcopal Church Methodist Episcopal Church South to form the Methodist Church and

Whereas overtures were sent to the Annual Conferences from said General Conference and said Annual Conferences did ratify the said plan of union and elected delegates to a uniting Conference to consummate the union and formation of the Methodist church and

Whereas at the uniting Conference held at Kansas City beginning April 26, 1939, the Annual Conferences of the three former Methodist denominations were authorized to hold a final session to close out their affairs and to prepare for merging conferences to follow and

.... Whereas in pursuance of said authorization the Annual Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church is now in session and desires to carry out said authorization,

BE IT RESOLVED THAT:

1st. That a special Ad-Interim Committee to be known as the Ad-Interim Adjustment Committee be appointed. The following named persons shall constitute the Committee: President of Conference—J. E. Burns, President of Preachers Aid—B. M. Mitchell, President of Church Extension—G. H. Snyder, President of Board of Education—F. L. Shaffer, Woman's Work—Mrs. B. M. Mitchell, Conference Treasurer—J. P. Turkelson, Laymen—W. R. Ross, Treasurer of Preachers Aid—L. E. Bee.

2nd. That this Conference delegate to this Committee full and plenary powers to adjust and correlate the various phases of the program, responsibilities, obligations, and objectives of this Conference, as such are and may be committed to the several committees, boards, and societies, in relation to the other conferences in this area. This work being necessary and imperative with relation to the merging of conferences for and in the United Methodist Church.

3rd. That all the societies, boards, and committees in and of this Conference be authorized and directed to follow such procedure as this Special Committee may direct; and sign, execute, and deliver such papers as may and shall be necessary to carry out and confirm the recommendations and reports of this Committee.

4th. That the Chairman of the Committee shall inform the Bishops within the Conference area of this action of this Conference and that this Committee is empowered to confer and ready for any and all negotiations required.

5th. It is fully understood and confirmed that this Adjustment Committee is this Conference Ad-Interim and such shall and does fully represent this body and will and does speak and act for and on behalf of the W. Va. Annual Conference.

G. H. Snyder
Frank L. Shaffer
W. R. Ross
J. T. Turkelson

HISTORICAL SECRETARY'S REPORT

As additions to the Tabulated Records of the West Virginia Methodist Protestant Church heretofore prepared, I have added 14 pages of President's Official Reports, 28 pages of names of Delegates to the Annual Conferences and 4 pages of Lists of Representatives to the General Conferences and the Uniting conference. A picture of the old Harmony Church and the Morgantown Church has also been added as well as several pictures for members or former members of this Conference.

If other pictures can be secured they will also be given a place in the record.

Respectfully submitted,

W. H. Hart,

Historical Secretary.

OBITUARY

Rev. Josiah Payne

Rev. Josiah Payne, pastor of the Methodist Protestant Church, at Pennsboro, heard the call from labor to reward Friday morning June 2, 1939. He was 66 years old having been born in Roane County April 3, 1873, the son of Robert and Susan Payne. He had been in declining health for some time but his most intimate friends did not know that he was seriously sick until a few months before his death. He was united in marriage with Miss Ida Conley, of Roane County, October 13, 1891. To this union seven children were born, all of whom, with Mrs. Payne, are living. Clarence, of El Ray, California; Rev. C. Donzel, Chaplain of Mooseheart, Illinois; Rowland, of Clarksburg; Mayford, of Huntington; Russell and Gwynne, of Spencer; Edward, of Pennsboro, are the six sons and Mrs. John Morrison of Weston the daughter. Brother Payne, was a very conservative man in all his dealings with others, modest and unassuming, never pressing his opinion on others or contending for his own method in planning the work of the church. He made and held many friends wherever he went and was possessed of a keen sense of humor with which he relieved many a tense moment and lightened many a heavy heart. He was a wise counselor in all affairs of his church and Conference, and was honored with many places of trust and responsibility, having been elected four times to the General Conference and two years President of the Annual Conference, as well as serving on important committees. He served the following charges: Kanawha, McKim, Friendly, Lewis, Pennsboro, Spencer, Weston, Lost Creek, and Pennsboro, for the second time and the second year, when he was called home.

Many people will remember Brother Payne as a singer of the gospel, for he could awaken new interest in almost any service when he decided to lead the singing, but he was at his best in preaching. He made no claim to scholarship, but he had a good mind and a command of language with which he could make clear the truths he desired to present and a force of oratory that was practically irresistible. The funeral was conducted from the church at Pennsboro, under the direction of Rev. J. E. Burns, president of the Conference, assisted by B. M. Mitchell, G. H. Snyder, J. P. Turkelson, and J. A. Selby. Fourteen ministers were present.

The beautiful floral tribute indicated something of the love and esteem in which this servant of God was held by those to whom he ministered. Many parts of the State and even of other states were represented in the multitude that filled the church and all the surrounding grounds, leaving us the assurance that Rev. Josiah Payne shall live on in the hearts of others.

The interment was made in the beautiful Fairview Cemetery on Hackers Creek in Lewis County.

On order of the Bishop the first ballot was taken and the tellers retired to count the vote.

RESOLUTION OF PLAN FOR SUPPORT AND ALLOWANCE OF DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENTS

Since the new World Service and Finance plan is scheduled to be made effective at the session of the Annual Conference next succeeding the 1940 General Conference, therefore, be it resolved: First: That a Conference Commission on Finance be elected at this session, composed of one member from each District, having regard to equal Lay and Ministerial representation, to be nominated by the Cabinet and elected by the Conference. Second: A Secretary-Treasurer of the Commission shall be nominated by the Cabinet and elected by the Conference. Third: That the Commission report for the approval of this Conference their plan for net cash support of the District Superintendents, District Parsonages, Travel and Office expense and the expenses of the Secretary-Treasurer, their estimate of the amount of money necessary, and the percentage of the pastors cash salary required to meet it. Fourth: That the Commission, in consultation with the District Superintendents, be authorized to determine the manner of collection and disbursement of these funds. The above resolution was presented by C. W. Evans and on motion of J. E. Wells was adopted.

NUMBER OF DISTRICTS—The recommendation by the Cabinet for thirteen Districts on motion by J. B. F. Yoak, Jr., was adopted.

Westfall, H. M. Sturm and G. E. Patty, Clerical and T. E. Schaeffer, Roscoe Summers and B. F. Mitchell, Lay.

RESOLUTION CONCERNING TRUST FUNDS—For the Conference Claimants, as these funds are to be administered through new Legislation. 1. That the present set-up for the Uniting groups be continued while we are engaged in working out a satisfactory basis of settlement concerning Conference Claimants and assets of the Conference merged. 2. That in all but the simplest situations competent legal counsel be obtained, in order that disposition of permanent funds may be accomplished in a legally defensible manner. 3. That there be no hasty dissolution of existing corporations, but that they should be kept in existence as long as they have corporate functions to perform. 4. That at this session of Conference we adopt the plan of the Uniting Conference for the adequate pensioning of these who are Claimants on Conference Funds. The above resolution, on motion was adopted by the Conference.

RESOLUTION CONCERNING ANNUAL CONFERENCE LAY ACTIVITIES—The following resolution was presented by Judge Harry Shaw and was adopted by the Conference. WHEREAS, the Uniting Conference provided for the Methodist Church a General Board of Lay Activities, a District Conference Board of Lay Activities and a Charge Board of Lay Activities, AND, WHEREAS, the Annual Conference Board of Lay Activities is made up ex officio of the Conference Lay Leader, the District and Associate District Lay Leader from each District, and the District Superintendents of the Annual Conference (see paragraph 1224 of the Discipline of the Methodist Church,) AND WHEREAS the Discipline provides for the election of the District and Associate District Lay Leaders by the District Conference were ordered by the Annual Conference (see paragraph 1230 of the Discipline,) and WHEREAS at the present time in the period of transition there is no Annual Conference Board of Lay Activities or District Boards of Lay Activities existing in the West Virginia Annual Conference, And WHEREAS, it seems necessary to provide the machinery for carrying out the instructions of the Uniting Conference, THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the West Virginia Annual Conference now in session elect a Conference Lay Leader under the provisions set forth in paragraph 1225 of the Discipline, namely that nominations for Conference Lay Leader may be made from the floor of the Conference. BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the West Virginia Annual Conference request the District Superintendents, as soon as practicable following the adjournment of this Conference, to appoint "acting" District and Associate District Lay Leaders to serve in the interim between this session of the Annual Conference and the Sessions of the District Conferences, or until their successors are elected. The Conference further requests the District Superintendents to report the names and addresses of their appointees to the Conference Lay Leader.

Respectfully Submitted,

THE ORDER OF SERVICE

THE PRELUDE

HYMN 381: "The Church's One Foundation"

Aurelia.

The Church's one foundation
Is Jesus Christ her Lord;
She is His new creation
By water and the word:
From Heaven He came and sought her
To be His holy bride;
With His own own blood He bought her,
And for her life He died.

Elect from every nation,
Yet one o'er all the earth,
Her charter of salvation,
One Lord, one faith, one birth;
One holy Name she blesses,
Partakes one holy food,
And to one hope she presses,
With every grace endued.

'Mid toil and tribulation,
And tumult of her war,
She waits the consummation
Of peace for evermore;

Till, with the vision glorious,
Her longing eyes are blest,
And the great Church victorious,
Shall be the Church at rest.

Yet she on earth hath union
With God the Three in One,
And mystic sweet communion
With those whose best is won:
O happy ones and holy!
Lord, give us grace that we,
Like them, the meek and lowly
On high may dwell with Thee. Amen.
Samuel J. Stone.

THE CALL TO WORSHIP

The Bishop: It shall come to pass, saith God, I will pour out my spirit upon all flesh.

The People: God hath not given unto us the spirit of fear, but of power and love and a sober mind.

The Bishop: The promise is unto you and to your children and to as many as the Lord our God shall call.

The People: As many as are led by the spirit of God, they are the children of God. Amen.

PSALM 100

Tune—Old Hundredth

All people that on earth do dwell,
Sing to the Lord with cheerful voice,
Him serve with mirth, His praise forth tell;
Come ye before Him and rejoice.

Know that the Lord is God indeed;
Without our aid He did us make;
We are His folk, He doth us feed,
And for His sheep He doth us take.

O enter then His gates with praise,
Approach with joy His courts unto;
Praise, laud, and bless His name always
For it is seemly so to do.

For why, the Lord our God is good;
His mercy is for ever sure;
His truth at all times firmly stood,
And shall from age to age endure.

Amen.

William Kethe, in Scottish Psalter, 1650.

(Here let the people be seated and bow in prayer.)

THE INVOCATION: (The Bishop)

O God Eternal, the Father of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, whose Name is great and whose goodness is inexhaust-ible, who art adored by the hosts of Heaven and dost accept offerings sanctified by Thy Holy Spirit: sanctify us, we beseech Thee, in body, soul and spirit; touch our understandings, search our consciences and cast out every unbecoming thought and base desire, all falsehood and vain glory and indifference, every motion of the flesh and spirit not in accordance with Thy holy will. And grant us, O Lord, with freedom, with a pure heart and contrite soul, without confusion of face, and with sanctified lips, boldly to call on Thee, our holy God and Father in Heaven. Amen.

THE COLLECT: (Here let the people unite with the Bishop in prayer.)

O God, our Father, we have come unto Mount Zion. We have built the altar; send thou the fire from heaven. We have spread the table; break thou the bread. We have opened the Book; shine thou upon its pages. We have gathered about the Cross of our Lord; be thou in our midst. Here, in this high hour, we would gain strength for our labors and consecration for thy kingdom. Fulfill now the desires and hopes of thy servants, granting us in this world knowledge of thy truth and in the world to come life everlasting: through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE HYMN OF PRAISE 162: "O For a Thousand Tongues to Sing"
Azman

O for a thousand tongues to sing
My great Redeemer's praise,
The glories of my God and King,
The triumphs of His grace.

My gracious Master and my God,
Assist me to proclaim,
To spread thro' all the earth abroad
The honors of Thy Name.

He speaks, and listening to His voice
New life the dead receive;
The mournful, broken hearts rejoice
The humble poor believe.

Jesus! the Name that charms our fears,
That bids our sorrows cease,
'Tis music in the sinner's ears,
'Tis life, and health, and peace.

He breaks the power of canceled sin,
He sets the prisoner free;
His blood can make the foulest clean,
His blood availed for me.

Hear Him, ye deaf; His praise, ye dumb,
Your loosened tongues employ;
Ye blind, behold your Savior come;
And leap, ye lame, for joy. Amen.
Charles Wesley.

THE PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING: (Here let the people be seated and bow in prayer).

O God, the Father of all mankind, we lift up our hearts in gratitude for the devoted and good through whom we have received our evangelical heritage of fellowship in Thy Church and Kingdom; those who having experienced the Christian purpose have wrought well and built nobly; into the fruit of whose labor we have entered. We give Thee hearty thanks for our fathers and brethren who helped the vision of a community of faith within thy Church Universal spreading Scriptural Holiness throughout the world, into whose goodly inheritance we have come. We pray that a double portion of the spirit that lived in their souls may possess our lives, that with steadfast courage and unwavering hope we may fulfill in our time the tasks put into our hands to do: through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE COLLECT: (Here let the people unite with the Bishop in prayer).

O God, our Father, thou Spirit of holiness and truth, bring us into a unity of love and consecration which may bear some likeness to the blessed nature of our Lord; grant us the spirit of peace and grace that, thy universal family may be devoted to thee with their whole heart, and kept in the unity of Thy Spirit in the bond of peace: through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

(Here let the people stand and remain standing for the Cantic of the Church and the Gloria Patri).

THE CANTICLE OF THE CHURCH:

The Bishop: Arise, shine; for thy light is come; and the glory of the Lord is risen upon thee.

The People: For behold, the darkness shall cover the earth: and gross darkness the people;

The Bishop: But the Lord shall rise upon thee: and His glory shall be seen upon thee.

The People: And the Gentiles shall come to thy light: and the kings to the brightness of thy rising.

The Bishop: Lift up thine eyes round about, and see; all that gather themselves together, they come to thee;

The People: Thy sons shall come from far: and thy daughters shall be nursed at thy side.

The Bishop: Then thou shalt see, and flow together: and thine heart shall fear, and be enlarged;

The People: Because the abundance of the sea shall be converted unto thee: the wealth of the Gentiles shall come unto thee.

The Bishop: I will make thee an eternal excellency: a joy of many generations.

The People: Violence shall no more be heard in thy land: wasting nor destruction within thy borders;

The Bishop: But thou shalt call thy walls Salvation: and thy gates praise.

The People: And the Lord shall be unto thee an everlasting light: and thy God thy glory.

The Bishop: Now unto the God of grace: for the might of His Spirit and the love of Christ;

The People: Be glory in the Church throughout all ages: world without end. Amen.

THE GLORIA PATRI:

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost; As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be; world without end. Amen.

THE NEW TESTAMENT SCRIPTURE LESSON: John 17: 1, 2, 6. 17-23.

These words spake Jesus, and lifted up His eyes to Heaven, and said, Father, the hour is come; glorify Thy Son, that Thy Son also may glorify Thee:

As Thou hast given Him power over all flesh, that He should give eternal life to as many as Thou hast given to Him.

I have manifested Thy Name unto the men which Thou gavest me out of the world: Thine they were, and Thou gavest them me and they have kept Thy word.

Sanctify them through Thy truth: Thy word is truth.

As Thou hast sent me into the world, even so have I also sent them into the world.

And for their sakes I sanctify myself, that they also might be sanctified through the truth.

Neither pray I for these alone, but for them also which shall believe on me through their word;

That they all may be one: as Thou, Father, art in me, and I in Thee, that they also may be one in us: that the world may believe that Thou hast sent me.

And the glory which Thou gavest me I have given them; that they may be one, even as we are one:

I in them, and Thou in me, that they may be made perfect in one; and that the world may know that Thou hast sent me, and hast loved them, as Thou hast loved me.

THE LITANY HYMN 380: "Jesus With Thy Church Abide" Litany

Jesus, with Thy Church abide;
Be her Savior, Lord, and Guide
While on earth her faith is tried:
We beseech Thee, hear us.

May her voice be ever clear,
Warning of a Judgment near,
Telling of a Saviour dear:
We beseech Thee, hear us.

May she guide the poor and blind,
Seek the lost until she find,
And the brokenhearted bind:
We beseech Thee, hear us.

May her lamp of truth be bright;
 Bid her bear aloft its light
 Thro' the realms of pagan night:
 We beseech Thee, hear us.

Judge her not for work undone,
 Judge her not for fields unwon,
 Bless her works in Thee begun:
 We beseech Thee, hear us.

May she holy triumphs win,
 Overthrow the hosts of sin,
 Gather all the nations in:
 We beseech Thee, hear us.

Amen.

Thomas B. Pollock.

ADDRESS: Bishop James H. Straughn

ADDRESS: Bishop W. W. Peele.

ADDRESS: Bishop Adna Wright Leonard.

THE DECLARATION OF UNION: (Here let the people stand).

I, Adna Wright Leonard, Resident and Presiding Bishop of the West Virginia Conference of the Methodist Church on this eighth day of September in the year of our Lord 1939 declare the said Conference to be an integral part of the new Methodist Church by the acts of union already consummated.

THE HALLELUIAH CHORUS—"The Messiah" George Frederick Handel

THE EXHORTATION AND ASCRIPTION

The Bishop: Now, therefore, in the sight of all the congregation of the Lord, and the audience of our God, keep and search for the commandments of the Lord our God, that ye may possess this good land and leave it for an inheritance for your children after you forever.

The Bishop and the People: Now unto Him that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that worketh in us, unto Him be glory in the Church by Christ Jesus throughout all ages, world without end.
 Amen.

THE CLOSING HYMN, 533. "O God, Our Help in Ages Past"

St. Anne

O God, our help in ages past,
 Our hope for years to come,
 Our shelter from the stormy blast,
 And our eternal home!

Under the shadow of Thy throne
Still may we dwell secure;
Sufficient is Thine arm alone,
And our defense is sure.

Before the hills in order stood,
Or earth received her frame
From everlasting Thou art God,
To endless years the same.

A thousand ages in, Thy sight,
Are like an evening gone;
Short as the watch that ends the night
Before the rising sun.

O God, our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come;
Be Thou our guide while life shall last,
And our eternal home; Amen.

Isaac Watts.

THE BENEDICTION

THE POSTLUDE

BROTHERHOOD — WEST VIRGINIA METHODIST CONFERENCE

The purpose of this Brotherhood is to provide a fund for the widows or other beneficiaries of our deceased brothers.

Each member of this Conference, active and retired, and all Local Preachers engaged as pastors, are eligible for membership.

An initial payment of $3.00 will entitle each eligible brother to participating membership for the first year; after which 50 cents per year dues, payable in advance and due at the time of the Annual Conference, shall be paid.

Immediately, upon proof of the death of a member, the Secretary-Treasurer shall draw a check payable to the beneficiary, or administrator of the deceased in amount equal to $1.00 for each effective member, and such additional amounts later as to total the amounts of the payments that shall be made on this call; all mortuary payments being credited in the order of their payments.

Officers shall be: President, Vice President, Secretary-Treasurer, and three Trustees. Officers to be elected Annually; Trustees to be elected now for one, two and three years respectfully, and hereafter, one each year. All officers serving without compensation, except that the Secretary-Treasurer shall be allowed his necessary expense out of the reserve fund which is composed of initial payments, dues, gifts and legacies.

The officers and Trustees shall compose an Executive Committee, competent to transact any business in the interim of the Annual Conference.

This Brotherhood is purely fraternal; and each member, for himself, his heirs, executors and assigns agrees that no action at law shall be had in any court. In all cases of differences, where agreement cannot be effected, arbitration shall be had, the President of the Brotherhood shall appoint one arbiter, the contestant another, and these two a third. The finding of such arbiters shall be final.

Provision is made for non-forfeiture of membership on account of honorable location, discontinuance or transfer. Also, beneficial relationship is non-forfeitable between sessions of the Annual Conference.

Brothers over thirty-five years of age will not be received as members after the adjournment of the Annual Conference in 1940. Younger men may not be admitted later than two years after being admitted into full connection.

Your Committee nominates for the ensuing year, the following officers: President, C. E. Brandt; Vice President, W. M. Castle; Secretary-Treasurer, J. M. Wysor; Trustee for one year, Joseph Hoffman; Trustee for two Years, J. D. Engle and Trustee for three years, Frank L. Shaffer.

REPORT OF BOARD OF EDUCATION

SECTION I.—ORGANIZATION

Your Board of Education has organized and begs to report the following officers:

President	Dr. John L. Wolfe
Vice President	Dr. W. P. Eastwood
Recording Secretary	Rev. A. E. Bennett
Executive Secretary	Rev. Harvey C. Porter
Treasurer	Mr. C. K. Gilchrist

Your Board, for the lack of time, has not been able to go into a careful study of the educational needs of our new Conference and the problems that immediately present themselves. The experience gained during the year just closed under the partial and temporary Educational Merger makes us aware of the problems we face in merging our educational work, but at the same time affords a basis for the belief that all our problems will ultimately be solved with a minimum of difficulty. To this end we ask the patient and sympathetic co-operation of all the ministers and laymen the coming year.

Your Board has instructed its Executive Committee to work with the Executive Secretary and his staff and, as soon as possible after this Conference, plan in detail a program of Christian Education in the field of the local Church. Same to be promoted through the Conference, District and Sub-district organizations. Permission has been granted the Executive Secretary to defer until after the adjournment of this Annual Conference the appointment of the District Directors as called for in the Discipline, in order to afford time to confer with the District Superintendents and the Conference Directors and make careful selections.

SECTION II.—LOCAL CHURCH

In assuming the responsibility for the work of Christian Education during the coming year, your Board makes the following recommendations:

1. That the Church Board of Christian Education of each local Church be set up by the first Quarterly Conference, or as early in the year as possible. (Par. 1133-35)
2. That the Church Board of Christian Education of each church make a close survey of the local community to discover and enlist all those persons for whom the church schools are responsible.

3. That we urge the exclusive use of our Methodist Literature in all our church schools, and that the church schools of each of the former Methodist denominations now united, continue to use the literature as provided.

4. That the District Superintendents be requested to emphasize Christian Education in all the meetings of their Districts.

5. That the names and addresses of the General and Divisional Superintendents of Church Schools, and the presidents of Young People's organizations be furnished by the District Superintendents to the Conference office as soon as possible.

6. That all our Church Schools enlist in and cooperate fully with the Methodist-wide Church School Advance to the end that we may continue to increase Church School enrollment and attendance. (For the year just closed the total net increase for the three united bodies was more than four thousand persons. We should have a gain of ten thousand the coming year.)

7. That Childhood and Youth Week be observed in the former Southern Methodist Churches in October; that the other Churches may participate in this program if they wish to do so.

8. That Rally Day be observed in all former M. E. Churches, and that an offering be taken for Christian Education in the Conference, remittance to be sent to 740 Rush Street, Chicago, Ill.

9. That Church School Day be observed in all the former Southern Methodist Churches at a time to be designated by the Board, and an offering be taken for Christian Education, remittance to be sent to Mr. C. K. Gilchrist, 424 Morrison Building, Charleston, W. Va.

10. That the Church Schools of the former M. P. Churches continue their support of the work of the Board of Christian Education, according to their usual method—the 5 cents assessment plan.

11. That all the special days in the program of the former M. P. Church be observed by those churches, and the offering directed as formerly.

12. That one Sunday in each month, preferably the fourth, be observed in every Church School as Missionary Sunday, with a carefully prepared Missionary program and an offering for Missions, the same to be directed as formerly.

13. That Vacation Church Schools and/or week-day schools of religion be held where possible.

14. That Young People's Summer Assemblies, Institutes and Camps be provided for all our Methodist Young people on the age group basis.

15. That, for the purpose of coordinating Young People's work, we request the following groups to meet with the Conference Staff and the Secretary of the Conference Board of Education, the council of the Conference Young People's Organization of the Former M. E. Church, South, the Cabinet and Institute Commission of the former M. E. Conference, the President of the old Board of Christian Education of the former M. P. Conference, and one young person from each District of that Conference to be appointed by him.

16. That B. W. Barnett, Robert Hinerman and Miss Virginia Hyer be elected to membership on the Board of Christian Education, fulfilling par. 1168.

17. That a Conference wide meeting be provided for children's workers.

18. That the Conference Staff and the President of the Board attend the Methodist Conference on Christian Education December 14-20 at Nashville, Tenn.

19. That the Conference confirm the appointment of A. Argyle Knight, Director of Young People's work at a salary of $1,600.00 and Mrs. H. M. Wade Director of Children's Work at a salary of $1,200.00.

20. That we request Bishop Leonard to appoint Rev. Harvey C. Porter, as Executive Secretary of the Board of Education at a salary of $2,500.00.

21. That the following be approved for the budget for 1939-40, which is within the limits of the financial plan for Christian Education adopted yesterday:

For Children's Work	$ 1,500.00
For Young People's Work	2,100.00
For Extension Program	4,420.00
For other work of the Board	3,540.00
	$11,560.00
For Morris Harvey College	$ 2,000.00

SECTION III.—WESLEY FOUNDATION

The Wesley Foundation has for a number of years ministered to the very large body of Methodist Youth attending West Virginia University in Morgantown. Nearly 1,000 Methodist young people constitute this significant and important parish.

The Wesley Methodist Church, W. S. Boyd, pastor has furnished the rooms and physical equipment necessary for the carrying on of this work. The salary of the Director and other expenses of the work have been provided through an assessment on the Churches of the former M. E. Church and appropriations from the General Board of the former M. E. Church and the former M. E. Church, South.

Mr. James Hutchinson has been the Director of the Foundation for the past four years.

We recommend that the program of the Foundation receive the continued support of the Conference, and that a budget of $2,200.00 be approved for the ensuing year, the method of raising this budget to continue for this Conference year as in the past.

We recommend the approval of the following members of the Campus Church Relations Committee: C. R. Bright, B. W. Folsom, Prof. Geo. Crow, Dr. Richard Aspinall, W. S. Boyd, Mrs. Geo. Rinehart, Dr. F. D. Conwell, Mrs. E. A. Marton, Paul Wilson, Bernard Gibbs, and O. D. Curtis.

The importance of maintaining a strong program of Religious Activities for the Methodist constituency at the State University will be apparent to all, and we enthusiastically commend this movement to the Conference.

SECTION IV.—COLLEGES

Your Board approves the plans for the support of West Virginia Wesleyan and Morris Harvey College as adopted by the respective former Annual Conference, and urges full cooperation on the part of all churches.

JOHN L. WOLF, Chairman.
A. E. BENNETT, Secretary.

CONFERENCE ENTERTAINMENT

The Committee on Conference Entertainment recommends that the plan used by the former Methodist Episcopal Church be adopted, and that the percent be $1\frac{1}{4}\%$ of the Pastor's cash salary.

Under this plan the full entertainment will be provided for both Clerical and Lay members of the Annual Conference, including lodging and all meals. Full co-operation by every pastoral charge will be necessary for the successful operation of this plan, and only those delegates, Ministerial and Lay from participating churches shall receive entertainment.

All invitations from Churches desiring to entertain the Conference must be in the hands of the Secretary of the Commission, A. W. Cox, Charleston, W. Va., not later than Jan. 1, 1940.

JOHN L. WOLF, Chairman.

PLAN FOR THE SUPPORT OF THE DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENCY

Your Committee on Finance reports the following findings and plans for the support of the District Superintendency:

We find that in eight of the Districts there are District parsonages and in one District an extra District parsonage, possibly two, that will need to be disposed of. These parsonages will have to be kept in repair and kept adequately insured.

We find further that some of these parsonages have debts against them.

We believe the plan should include all the requirements for the support of the District Superintendency, should be forward looking, and be a long time plan.

Therefore, we propose that the plan include the net salaries of the District Superintendents, travel and office expenses, insurance and upkeep of present parsonages, rent where there are no parsonages, payment gradually and according to plans to be worked out in detail by the Commission, of present debts, and to purchase or build in the future at such time as may be found to be wise, parsonages for other Districts.

To carry out the above, we purpose the following budget for the coming year:

13 Superintendents salary each @ $3,000	$39,000.00
13 Superintendents travel and office expense @ $600.00	7,800.00
8 District Boards of Trustees insurance and upkeep of parsonages @ $300.00 each	2,400.00
5 Superintendents rent for parsonages at flat rate of $600.00 each	3,000.00
To pay interest and principal on District parsonage debts provided that the amount is realized above the other requirements	4,500.00
Secretary-Treasurer	500.00
Total	$57,200.00

The nearest calculation we have been able to obtain gives, in round numbers, a total of $578,999.00 paid to Pastors for the Conference year 1937-38.

We, therefore, recommend that the apportionment for the support of the District Superintendency for each pastoral charge shall be an amount equal to 10% of the apportioned cash salary of the pastors.

We find upon the most careful survey of the geography of the Conference that the larger wealth of the Conference is in certain centers. This makes it totally impracticable to draw the lines of the Districts in such manner that all the Districts could adequately support their Superintendents. We, therefore, recommend that all support of the District Superintendency be paid by the Secretary-Treasurer of the Commission on Finance from the funds raised by the 10% apportionment as above, that each District Superintendent be paid some net salary and that the other allowances be the same as designated in the above budget.

We further recommend that the amount due each District Superintendent monthly be applied to net salary, travel, office expense and rent, as the case may be, be paid not later than the 15th day of each month to begin with October next and to continue until the full 12 months allowances shall have been paid; that other items be paid as may be decided by the Commission after ascertaining all the facts in the several cases.

We, also, recommend that the Secretary-Treasurer be bonded in such amount as the Commission may decide, and that, if necessary, he be empowered to borrow the necessary funds to pay the allowances monthly.

The Commission to be limited in its borrowing power so as not to exceed three months salary.

Under the former resolution the Commission was authorized to determine the manner in which monies shall be disbursed to the Secretary-Treasurer by the charges and local churches.

We recommend that any further details be in the hands of the Commission with power to act.

(Signed)

J. M. HELM, Chairman.

CHAS. W. EVANS, Secretary-Treasurer.

THE NEW HAMMOND

Glorious organ music . . . and a financial budget that's easier to meet than ever before! That's what many churches have achieved by installing a Hammond Organ.

Instead of costing many thousands of dollars, as you might expect from its magnificent tones, the Hammond costs only from $1,500 to $1,700 if your church is of average size. It requires no costly building alterations . . . cannot get out of tune . . . costs only about $20 a year to operate.

And—from the day the Hammond is installed—you may expect a more inspiring religious atmosphere in your services . . . a larger and more enthusiastic congregation . . . more generous support.
